Friends of Sesqui was formed in 2011 as a non-profit organization that seeks to raise funds to help preserve, protect, improve facilities, assist the rangers meet specific needs, provide volunteers for support services and host programs to increase awareness about the park. This helps the state park remain self-sufficient as directed by the state legislature. Since our founding, some of our more notable projects includes: attained funding for an Outdoor Education Classroom from the Lipscomb Family Foundation, planted 26 hardwood trees at the Welcome Center and 12 Dogwood trees utilizing a grant from Columbia Green; relocated and landscaped the Blue Star marker through the aid of Columbia Garden Club; erected kiosks at both the dog park and the main visitor area, with funding from the Spring Valley Rotary Club; planted shade and dogwood trees through grants from Columbia Green and the Spring Valley Rotary Club; planted 65 Longleaf pine trees near the park office through a gift from Heathwood Hall Episcopal School; created an entrance garden utilizing funding from Columbia Green and Kroger grocery store.
