

CONSTITUTION
OF
WARRINGTON POST #240, INC.
THE AMERICAN LEGION
DEPARTMENT OF FLORIDA

PREAMBLE

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; To maintain law and order; To foster and perpetuate a one-hundred percent Americanism; To preserve the memories and incidents of our associations in the great wars; To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; To combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; To make right the master of might; To promote peace and good-will on earth; To safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom, and democracy; To consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.

ARTICLE I NAME

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be Warrington Post #240, Inc., The American Legion, Department of Florida.

Section 2. The office of the Post shall be located at The American Legion Home, 8666 Gulf Beach Highway, Pensacola, Escambia County, Florida. The mailing address of the Post shall be 8666 Gulf Beach Highway, Pensacola, Florida 32507, or as directed by the Post Executive Committee.

ARTICLE II Objects

Section 1. The objects of this Post shall be: to promote the principles and policies as set forth in the foregoing Preamble and the National and Departmental Constitution of The American Legion.

ARTICLE III NATURE

Section 1. The American Legion is a civilian organization. Membership therein does not affect nor increase liability for military or police service. Rank does not exist in The American Legion; no member shall be addressed by his or her military or naval title in any meeting of this Post.

Section 2. This organization shall be absolutely non-political and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles nor for the promotion of candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

ARTICLE IV
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility to membership in this Post shall be as prescribed by the National Constitution of The American Legion.

Section 2. There shall be no form or class of membership except an active membership, and dues shall be paid annually or paid up for life. However, provided this Post may elect Honorary Life Members who shall thereupon be relieved of the payment of any subsequent dues, and this Post will transmit Department and National assessments yearly for each elected Honorary Life Member. Honorary Life Membership will not be conferred by a vote of this Post unless all members shall be notified in writing in advance of the regular meeting that the voting is to take place for Honorary Life Members.

Section 3. Applications for membership shall be made in writing under such regulations as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Post Executive Committee, preferably on forms provided by National Headquarters of the American Legion.

Section 4. All applications for membership shall be acted upon at the next Post meeting following the making of such application and shall at such meeting be accepted, rejected, or referred for further investigation and consideration.

If a majority of members present cast their vote against the acceptance of said application, then such application shall be recorded as rejected. A rejected application shall not again be considered until after the expiration of six (6) months from the date of such rejection.

Section 5. Members may be reprimanded, suspended, or expelled from The American Legion only upon proper showing for cause. Charges shall be based upon disloyalty, neglect of duty, dishonesty, or conduct unbecoming a member of The American Legion. All charges must be made under oath in writing by the accusers, and no member in good standing shall lose his membership until given a fair trial by the Elected Officers and Executive Committeemen of this Post. Department of Florida Constitution Article X, Section 14 & 15, and practice and procedures in expulsion or suspension of a member of The American Legion in the Post Officer's Guide are germane.

Section 6. Any member who has been expelled or suspended from this Post for any cause may be reinstated to membership by a two-thirds vote of the membership present at a Regular Post Meeting and the payment of current dues for the year in which reinstatement occurs.
