

Zimmerli Art Museum | Rutgers

WORKSHOP FOR EDUCATORS

Math in Art

Friday, March 28 / 9:00am to 3:00pm

Cost: $50 / Workshop

Participants receive six professional development credit hours.

Breakfast and lunch included.

Explore the Core Curriculum Standards of Geometry, Measurement, and Data through works of art from the Zimmerli's Collection of American Art. How do artists configure lines and shapes to represent space and solids? How do painted landscapes relate to maps and topography? This workshop will include hands-on activities that integrate math and science with art and New Jersey history.
