Our Guarantee

Every transaction will be reviewed for accuracy before it is processed. Each payment will be processed on or near the 25th of the month before the service being billed. If we ever make an error and charge your account incorrectly we will promptly refund any overage amount + 10%. Any payments received in advance for unused months will be refunded upon notice of closure of your account. Your account information will be kept securely and will be shared only with those involved in the billing process.

You may cancel your automatic payment at any time.
