ARTICLE II

PROPERTY OF PARTIES

A. Property Rights. The parties to this Agreement intend and desire to determine and set forth the respective rights of each in the property of the other upon the dissolution of their marriage by a Court of competent jurisdiction or the termination of their marriage for any other reason, including by reason of the death of one or both of them.

B. Property of Jordan. JORDAN individually owns certain real and personal property that she previously acquired. The description and approximate valuation of such property is set forth in Schedule "A"

C. Property of Mirra. MIRRA individually owns certain real and personal property that he previously acquired. The description and approximate valuation of such property is set forth in Schedule "B".

D. Jordan's Separate Property. JORDAN shall, as if the marriage never existed, keep and retain all right, title and interest, including, but not limited to, the right to solely own, control, enjoy and dispose of, all property described in paragraph B above, except as set forth in paragraphs E and F below, and any and all property that JORDAN may hereafter individually acquire or receive. MIRRA hereby disclaims any and all right, title and interest in and to the property described in paragraph B, except as set forth in paragraphs E and F below, and any and all property that MIRRA and JORDAN may hereafter individually acquire or receive, including, but not limited to, all such interest arising by operation of the intended marriage of these parties, and MIRRA hereby acknowledges that such property is the separate property of JORDAN. JORDAN reserves the right to make gifts to MIRRA of her separate property; however, gifts in excess of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars shall be evidenced by writing signed by both parties.

E. Pre-Marriage Jointly Held Property. It is the parties' intention that after their marriage the property located at 2932 N. Atlantic Boulevard, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33308 (the "Beach Front Property") shall be the primary marital residence of the parties. The Beach Front Property is presently owned by the parties as joint tenants with right of survivorship.

As joint tenants with right of survivorship this property shall be owned jointly by the parties with title vesting in the person who survives the other. However, in the case of divorce, annulment or the filing of a petition for dissolution by either JORDAN or MIRRA, the parties specifically agree that the Beach Front Property shall be divided equally (not equitably) between them, that is a fifty percent (50%) interest in the property to JORDAN and a fifty percent (50%) interest in the property to MIRRA.

Any joint account established with funds from the sale of the Beach Front Property shall revert in the same manner upon annulment, dissolution, including the filing of a petition for dissolution as in the preceding paragraph. That is to say, that the parties shall share equally (not equitably) in any such proceeds generated from a sale of the property, that is a fifty percent (50%) interest in the proceeds to JORDAN and a fifty percent (50%) interest in the proceeds to MIRRA.

F. Specific Other Separate Property of Jordan. JORDAN separately owns the property which is more particularly described below. It is JORDAN's intention by this paragraph F to make provision for the payment to MIRRA of his share of the sale proceeds received by JORDAN resulting from the stock sale transaction by and between APS and IHS which was consummated by the execution of a stock purchase agreement between those entities dated August 29, 1997, to which the parties acknowledge and agree that MIRRA is entitled. To effectuate the parties desired intent, JORDAN and MIRRA agree as follows with regard to the Separate Jordan Property described below:

(i) Gruntal Securities Account. JORDAN has established an account with Gruntal Securities (the "Gruntal Securities Account") which is titled in her name alone. It is the parties intention that the Gruntal Securities Account shall remain in JORDAN's name alone, however, in the case of the death of JORDAN, or upon the parties' divorce or annulment, or the filing of a petition for dissolution by either party, JORDAN and MIRRA specifically agree that the Gruntal Securities Account shall be divided between them in the following manner, MIRRA to be entitled to seventy-five percent (75%) of the account balance and JORDAN to be entitled to twenty-five percent (25%) of the account balance.

(ii) Smith Barney Account. JORDAN has established an account with Smith Barney (the "Smith Barney Account") which is titled in her name alone. It is the parties intention that the Smith Barney Account shall remain in JORDAN's name alone, however, in the case of the death of JORDAN, or upon the parties' divorce or annulment, or the filing of a petition for dissolution by either party, JORDAN and MIRRA specifically agree that the Gruntal Securities Account shall be divided between them in the following manner, MIRRA to be entitled to seventy-five percent (75%) of the account balance and JORDAN to be entitled to twenty-five percent (25%) of the account balance.

(iii) Merrill Lynch Accounts. JORDAN has established certain accounts with Smith Barney (the "Smith Barney Accounts") which are titled in her name alone. It is the parties intention that the Smith Barney Accounts shall remain in JORDAN's name alone, however, in the case of the death of JORDAN, or upon the parties' divorce or annulment, or the filing of a petition for dissolution by either party, JORDAN and MIRRA specifically agree that the Merrill Lynch Accounts shall be divided between them in the following manner, MIRRA to be entitled to seventy-five percent (75%) of the account balance and JORDAN to be entitled to twenty-five percent (25%) of the account balance.

G. Mirra's Separate Property. MIRRA shall, as if the marriage never existed, keep and retain all right, title and interest, including, but not limited to, the right to solely own, control, enjoy and dispose of, all property described in paragraph C above, and any and all property that MIRRA may hereafter individually acquire or receive. JORDAN hereby disclaims any and all right, title and interest in and to the property described in paragraph C, and any and all property that MIRRA may hereafter individually acquire or receive, including, but not limited to, all such interest arising by operation of the intended marriage, and JORDAN hereby acknowledges that this property is the separate property of MIRRA and JORDAN. MIRRA reserves the right to make gifts to JORDAN of his separate property; however, gifts in excess of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars shall be evidenced by writing signed by both parties.

H. Property Acquired During the Marriage in the Name of One of the Parties. Any and all real, personal, intangible, mixed, or other property acquired during the marriage in the name of one or the other of the parties shall be and remain the separate property of the party in whose name title is taken. In the event of death, annulment, or dissolution of the marriage of the parties, including the filing of a petition for dissolution, this provision shall be deemed conclusive as to the ownership of separately owned property acquired during the marriage. The parties agree that each shall manage, control, sell, mortgage, convey and transfer their separate property during the marriage without the signature, joining, or consent of the other party, except when provisions of law require the contrary.

I. Property Acquired During the Marriage in Joint Names of the Parties. Any and all real, personal, intangible, mixed or other property acquired after the marriage of the parties in the name of both parties, shall be held by them as provided in the instrument conveying the property as evidence of title to the property, unless the parties enter into a separate agreement which regulates and specifies the ownership of such property. If the instrument does not specify otherwise, or if there is no instrument or separate agreement, the property shall be held as a tenancy by the entirety.

J. Furniture and Furnishings. All furniture and furnishings located in the parties' marital residence at the time their marriage is dissolved which was acquired during the marriage shall be owned by the parties jointly. That property shall be divided by the parties upon dissolution of their marriage one-half to each party. Any furniture or furnishings located in the parties' marital residence at the time their marriage is dissolved which was inherited by either party shall be owned solely by the person who inherited that property.

K. Homestead. Both MIRRA and JORDAN hereby release any claim, demand, right or other interest either may acquire in any real property titled in the other's individual name because of homestead property provisions of the Florida Constitution or any Florida Statute concerning the alienation or descent of properties, homestead, or any similar Constitutional provision or statute in any state where the parties reside as a result of the marriage.

ARTICLE III

DISSOLUTION OR PROCEEDINGS FOR DISSOLUTION OR ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE

A. Alimony, Support and Property Rights by the Parties in the Event of Dissolution, Annulment or the Filing of a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage. Each party hereby waives, discharges and releases any interest, claim or demand of whatever kind or description in law or equity that may accrue to them in the form of a property award or distribution which they may otherwise acquire in the event of dissolution, annulment or the filing of a petition for dissolution of their marriage. This waiver and release includes the right to an equitable distribution or special equity or net accumulations in any property (real, personal or intangible) owned by the other party, unless otherwise provided for within this Agreement.

Each party further waives, discharges and releases any claim that he or she may have against the other party for any spousal support including but not limited to, alimony and/or attorney's fees connected with the dissolution, annulment or filing of a petition for dissolution of their marriage.

ARTICLE IV

JORDAN hereby waives and releases all rights in and claims against the estate of MIRRA on his death, including elective share, dower, family allowance, inheritance or any spousal support or other claims or rights given by law or otherwise, including homestead, pretermitted spouse rights and exempt property. Neither MIRRA or JORDAN intend this Agreement to limit or restrict the right of MIRRA to make any bequests, devise or gift to JORDAN by his Will or otherwise. MIRRA may elect to make a bequeath, devise or gift to JORDAN by his Will, without invalidating this Agreement, and may thereafter change or eliminate such bequest, devise or gift by a codicil or trust, and by another Will, or otherwise, without in any way affecting the continued effectiveness of this Agreement.

JORDAN may elect to make a bequeath, devise or gift to MIRRA by her Will, without invalidating this Agreement, and may thereafter change or eliminate such bequest, devise or gift by a codicil or trust, and by another Will, or otherwise, without in any way affecting the continued effectiveness of this Agreement.

ARTICLE V

FUTURE CONVEYANCES

Each party to this Agreement agrees in the future to execute and join as a party in any release, renunciation, quitclaim, discharge or other instrument when requested to do so by the other party, or that party's representative, in order to divest that party of any right, title or interest in or with respect to any property titled solely in the other party. If either party should desire to mortgage, convey, sell lease, or in any other manner encumber his or her separate property, then the other party shall, upon request, promptly join in the execution of any deed, conveyance, lease or other instrument that may be necessary or appropriate for such transaction; provided, however, such party shall not be required to execute any such instrument or document that would impose liability on them.
