Probably you might have noticed that in the above mentioned breed/variety deviations may occur, which might damage the welfare, health, behaviour, movement and/or the wellbeing of one or more dogs of this breed. The Dutch Kennel Club 'Raad van Beheer' kindly asks you, immediately after breed judging, to answer the questions below and hand over this form to the secretariat of the organization of this Dog Show. Before judging we ask you to study the relevant points of attention concerning that breed and incorporate these when answering the following questions.

The number of dogs of the breed/variety you have been judging _____ (per breed 1 form).

While judging the breed, I did notice the following relevant points which need attention:

In my written critique I did pay attention to the overall soundness, health and welfare of the dog in relation to the in these BSI mentioned general points of attention.

I did notice any other exaggeration or abnormalities, which could harm the welfare, health and/or behaviour of the dog and/or its movement c.q. wellbeing.

I think this breed must be added to the list breeds which need "attention" because:

Are there any other comments regarding the contents or list of breeds mentioned in the BSI or the way the Dutch Kennel Club 'Raad van Beheer' tries to ameliorate the health and behaviour of pedigree dogs?
