Why are you seeking your ham radio license?

Special dietary or other accommodations needed:

You need to buy an ARRL Ham Radio License Manual, you can find them at these two places for sure:

ARRL National Book Store: <http://tinyurl.com/25h2jw> (the first book in the list)

Radio City, Mounds View, MN: <http://tinyurl.com/299txz> (get it local at the store if you are in the area)

There are other manuals out there. However, this is the most current with the actual test questions in the back of the book. The power point presentations and other teaching materials are geared from this book specifically. Please read through the manual before the class and mark it up with questions you may have when you are going through it.
