Summer Camp Basic Rules

CAMP DRESS CODE: MODESTY

Guys: No tank tops in evening services. One piece swim trunks (just seeing if you're really reading this!) Please wear a t-shirt with your swim trunks. Do not go shirtless.

Girls: Tanks are to be 4 fingers wide. No tight fitting apparel. Sport short pants of appropriate length allowed at all activities, excluding evening service. At evening service pants or a dress or skirt of appropriate length are expected. No mini skirts (even with tights). No backless dresses or see-through clothing. No spaghetti strap tops, unless covered by another garment. Swimwear can be worn at water games, but is to be covered while on grounds. Refrain from clothing of a revealing nature.

Both Guys and Girls: Undergarments should be covered at all times. Pajama attire is not to be worn outside of dorm area. No t-shirts with objectionable writing or pictures are to be worn. * We reserve the right to ask any camper or staff member to change any clothing that does not comply with the rules.

 All staff is required to follow the dress code.

SPECIAL GOVERNMENT/CAMP STATEMENT

No weapons, fireworks, tobacco products of any kind, drinking of alcoholic beverages, drugs, or profanity are allowed on the campgrounds. *Should a nicotine patch be needed, talk to the Camp Life Director who will work with the camp nurse.

If there is any cause for executive staff to search a room or cabin, staff belongings will be checked as well as those of the campers.

CLOSED CAMPUS POLICY

Glacier Bible Camp is a closed campus during camps. This means that visitors are not allowed. Please alert your family and friends of this policy. Special permission can be given in specific circumstances, but must go through the Camp Life Director or Network Youth Director (NYD). For the safety of the camper, NEVER allow a camper to leave the grounds with a visitor. This is done only through the Camp Life Director or NYD.

DAMAGE AND NEEDED REPAIRS

Please report damage or needed repairs to the office immediately. Damaged property should be reported with the name of the camper responsible. The camp director will decide the cost to the camper, if any. Vandalism will be reported to the church responsible for the camper. The church, not the MT Network Council, will deal with the camper. This is confirmed by the pastor's signature on a camper's registration form.
