THE RESERVE AND AUXILIARY AIR FORCES ACT, 1952
NO LXII OF 1952

An act to provide for the constitution and regulation of certain Air Force Reserves and also an Auxiliary Air Force and for matters connected therewith.

(22 August 1952)

RESTRICTED

Be it enacted by Parliament as follows :-

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short Title, extent and commencement – (1) This Act may be called the Reserve and Auxiliary Air Forces Act 1952.

(2) It extends to the whole of India.

(3) This Chapter shall come into force at once, and the remaining provisions shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint, and different dates may be appointed for different provisions.

2. Definitions – In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, -

(a) “Air Force Reserve” means any of the Air Force Reserves raised and maintained under this Act;

(b) “Competent Authority” means an air officer or a committee consisting of two or more air officers appointed under section 3;

(c) “prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(d) all other words and expressions used herein and defined in the Air Force Act 1950 (XIV of 1950), and not hereinbefore defined shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them by that Act.

3. Appointment of competent authority – The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint an air officer or committee consisting of two or more air officers to perform all or any of the functions of the competent authority under this Act for such area as may be specified in the notification.

CHAPTER – II

REGULAR AIR FORCE RESERVE

4. Constitution of Regular Air Force Reserve – The Central Government may raise and maintain in the manner hereafter in this Chapter provided an Air Force Reserve to be designated the Regular Air Force Reserve which shall consist solely of persons transferred or appointed to it under Section 5.

5. Recruitment to the Regular Air Force Reserve – (1) The competent authority may, by general or special order, transfer to the Regular Air Force Reserve -

- (a) any officer or airman of the Air Force who under the terms and conditions of his service is liable to serve in any Air Force Reserve if and when constituted;
- (b) any officer or airman of the Air Force whose commission or engagement in the Air Force has been terminated before the commencement of this Act and who under the terms of his commission or engagement was liable to serve in any Air Force Reserve if and when constituted;
- (c) any officer or airman who has served in the Air Force and has retired therefrom; and any officer or airman so transferred shall be deemed to be a member of the said Reserve.

(2) The competent authority may, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, by special order, appoint to the Regular Air Force Reserve any member of the Air Defence Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force raised and maintained under this Act, and where any such member is so appointed, he shall cease to be a member of the Air Defence Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force, as the case may be, and shall as from the date of such appointment be deemed to be a member of the Regular Air Force Reserve.

(3) The competent authority may, for reasons which in its opinion are sufficient, cancel any order made under sub section (1) or sub section (2) and on the cancellation of such order the person in respect of whom the order had been made shall cease to be a member of the Regular Air Force Reserve.

6. Classes of persons in the Regular Air Force Reserve – Members of the Regular Air Force Reserve shall be divided into the following classes, namely :-

- (a) general duties officers,
- (b) ground duties officers, and
- (c) airmen,

and every officer shall be entitled on transfer or appointment to the Reserve to hold the same rank as that which he last held in the Air Force, or the Air Defence Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force, as the case may be, before such transfer or appointment.

7. Period of service – (1) Every member of the Regular Air Force Reserve shall be liable to serve in the Reserve -

- (a) if he is transferred to the Reserve under sub section (1) of section 5 for the period of his Reserve liability and
- (b) if he is appointed to the Reserve under sub-section (2) of section 5, for the remainder of the period for which he was liable to serve in the Air Defence Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force, as the case may be :

Provided that the competent authority may require any such member to serve in the Reserve for such further period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate five years as it may think fit.

RESTRICTED

Explanation I – For the purposes of this sub-section “period of Reserve liability “ in relation to any member of the Regular Air Force Reserve means the period for which under the terms and conditions of his service in the Air Force he was liable to serve in any Air Force Reserve if and when constituted.

Explanation II – In computing the period of Reserve liability in relation to any member of the Regular Air Force Reserve whose commission or engagement in the Air Force was terminated before the commencement of this Act, the period which has elapsed between such termination and the date of such commencement shall be included.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), no person shall be liable to serve in the Reserve after attaining the prescribed age.

8. Termination of service in the Reserve – Every member of the Regular Air Force Reserve shall, on completion of the period of his service therein, cease to be a member of the Reserve.

CHAPTER III

26. Application of Air Force Act, 1950 – Every member of an Air Force Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force shall, when called up for training, medical examination or for service under this Act, be subject to the Air Force Act, 1950 (XIV of 1950), and the rules made thereunder in the same manner as a person belonging to the Air Force and holding the same rank is subject to the said Act and rules and shall continue to be so subject until duty released from such training, medical examination or service, as the case may be.

CHAPTER VI

MISCELLANEOUS

27. Reinstatement in civil employ of persons required to perform service under this Act-(1) It shall be the duty of every employer by whom a person called up under section 25 is employed to grant him such leave as may be necessary and to reinstate him in his employment on the termination of the period during which he has been so called up in occupation and under conditions not less favourable to him than those which would have been applicable to him had he not been so called up :

Provided that if the employer refuses to reinstate such person or denies his liability to reinstate such person, or it for any reason the reinstatement of such person is represented by the employer to be impracticable, either party may refer the matter to the prescribed authority and that authority shall, after considering all matters which may be put before him and after making such further inquiry into the matter as may be prescribed, pass an order :-

- (a) exempting the employer from the provisions of this section, or
- (b) requiring him to re-employ such person on such terms as that authority thinks suitable, or
- (c) requiring him to pay to such person by way of compensation for failure or inability to re-employ, a sum not exceeding an amount equal to six months' remuneration at the rate at which his last remuneration was payable to him by the employer.

(2) If any employer fails to obey the order of any such authority as is referred to in the proviso to sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, and the court by which an employer is convicted under this section shall order him if he has not already been so required by the said authority to pay to the person whom he has failed to re-employ a sum equal to six months' remuneration at the rate at which his last remuneration was payable to him by the employer, and any amount so required to be paid either by the said authority or by the court shall be recoverable as if it were a fine imposed by such court.

(3) In any proceeding under this section it shall be a defence for an employer to prove that the person formerly employed did not apply to the employer for reinstatement within a period of two months from the termination of the period during which he was called up under section 25.

(4) The duty imposed by sub-section (1) upon an employer to grant leave to a person such as is described in that sub-section or to reinstate him in his employment shall attach to an employer who, before such person is actually called up under section 25, terminates his employment in circumstances such as to indicate an intention to evade the duty imposed by that sub-section and such intention shall be presumed until the contrary is proved if the termination takes place after the issue of an order relating to that person under section 25.

28. Preservation of certain rights of persons called up for service- When any person called up under section 25 has any rights under any provident fund or superannuation fund or other scheme for the benefit of employees maintained in connection with the employment he relinquishes, he shall continue, during the period for which he has been so called up and if he is reinstated, until such reinstatement under the provisions of this Act, to have in respect of such fund or scheme such rights as may be prescribed.

29. Pay and Allowances – (1) Every member of an Air Force Reserve of the Auxiliary Air Force shall, during the period of training or active service, receive such pay and allowances as are admissible to an officer or airman, as the case may be, in the corresponding rank, branch or trade of the Air Force.

(2) Where any such member was in any employment immediately before he is called up for training under section 25, the employer shall, during the period of the training, be liable to pay to him the difference, if any, between the pay and allowances which he would have received from the employer if he had not been called up for such training and the pay and allowances which he receives as such member while under training.

(3) If any employer refuses or fails to pay to any such member the difference in pay and allowances as provided in sub-section (2), such difference in pay and allowances may, on application by the member to the prescribed authority, be recovered from the employer in such manner as may be prescribed.

30. Penalties - (1) If any person refuses or without lawful excuse (the burden of proving which shall lie upon such person) neglects to comply fully with the requirements of sub-section (1) of section 11 or of any order made under sub-section (2) of that section or with the requirements of section 14, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(2) If any person willfully fails to comply with any notice issued under section 13 or section 16, he shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousands rupees, or with both.

31. Service of notice - Any notice or order to be served on any person for the purposes of this Act may be sent by post to that person at his last known address or may be served upon him in such other manner as may be prescribed.

32. Competent authority to be public servant - For the purposes of this Act every competent authority and where the competent authority consists of a committee of two or more air officers, every member of the committee shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

33. Power of Central Government to grant exemptions- The Central Government may, for special reasons and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, by order exempt any persons from any obligation or liability under this Act or any particular provision thereof.

34. Power of make rules - (1) The Central Government may by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

- (a) the composition and strength of any Air Force Reserve;
- (b) the circumstances in which and the conditions subject to which any officer or airman may be transferred or appointed to the Regular Air Force Reserve under section 5;
- (c) the age beyond which persons shall not be liable to serve in the Regular Air Force Reserve;
- (d) the form and manner in which the particulars required by sub-section (2) of section 11 shall be furnished;
- (e) the form and manner in which registers shall be maintained in pursuance of section 15, the particulars to be entered therein, and the correction or revision of such particulars from time to time;

RESTRICTED

- (f) the pay or allowances payable to persons called up for inquiry or medical examination under this Act;
- (g) the terms and conditions subject to which a person may be enrolled as a member of the Auxiliary Air Force;
- (h) the authority by which and the conditions subject to which the service of any officer or enrolled person in the Auxiliary Air Force may be terminated;
- (i) the constitution and the duties, powers and procedure of Advisory Committees to be constituted under section 24;
- (j) the period and manner of training of members of any Air Force Reserve and the Auxiliary Air Force;
- (k) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which the rank of any member of an Air Force Reserve may be determined;
- (l) the constitution of the authority for the purpose of section 27 and the manner in which such authority may conduct any inquiry under this Act;
- (m) the authority to which an application under sub-section (3) of section 29 may be made and the manner in which the difference in the pay and allowances may be recovered under that sub-section;
- (n) the manner in which any notice or order issued or made under this Act may be served;
- (o) the conditions subject to which any person may be exempted from any obligation or liability under this Act or any particular provisions thereof;
- (p) any other matter which under this Act is to be, or may be prescribed.

(3) Any rule made under this section may provide that a contravention thereof shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

(4) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than seven days before Parliament as soon as possible after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make, during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

35. Amendment of Sections 2,4 and 31, Act XIV of 1950- in the Air Force Act, 1950-

- (i) in section 2, for clause (c), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:-

“(c) persons belonging to the Regular Air Force Reserve or the Air Defence Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force in the circumstances specified in section 26 of the Reserve and Auxiliary Air Forces Act, 1952;”

- (ii) in section 4, for the words “the Indian Air Force Volunteer Reserve”, wherever they occur, the words, “any Air Force Reserve or the Auxiliary Air Force” shall be substituted;
