Parent and Player Code of Conduct

PURPOSE: The Parent and Player Code of Conduct (herein referred as the Code) defines expectations and appropriate behavior expected of all players, their parents or guardians, coaches, spectators, and the Rocky Mountain Soccer Academy (RMSA) Club officials. By reviewing and signing at the bottom, the player, through his/her parent or guardian who signs the acknowledgement, agrees to abide by the standards and expectation of the Code.

1. Players and parents acknowledge that the participation in RMSA is a privilege and that failure to meet the elements of the Code listed herein can result in a revocation of that privilege, including penalties up to expulsion from the RMSA with no refund of fees paid.
2. Players and parents agree to follow rules, regulations, and guidelines of RMSA, Colorado Youth Soccer (CYS), and the United States SOCCER FEDERATION (USSF). In the event of an incident or dispute regarding play or behavior, the order of precedence will be in the order listed above.
3. Players and parents or guardians agree that they, as well as spectators, are subject to all Misconduct Rules as defined by the bodies listed in 2 above.
4. If a player or parent or guardian is dismissed because of conduct, he/she shall remain silent and leave the playing area to a minimum of 100 yards from the playing field at dismissal.
5. Players and parents or guardians agree to cooperate with any of the above bodies in any investigation or disciplinary action initiated that may involve the player, the parents or guardians and to do so in a truthful and ethical manner.
6. Players, parents and guardians agree that good sportsmanship and behavior are expected at all times and that safety is of paramount concern. Specifically, they will not:
 - A. Use foul or abusive language, including such use in utterances of frustration;
 - B. Attempt to intimidate players, coaches, game officials, or other spectators either verbally or physically;
 - C. Attempt to interfere with the progress of a game or other sanctioned event;
 - D. Make comments that may be construed as insensitive to another individual's or group ethnic background, gender, beliefs or customs, whether intentional or not;
 - E. Engage in prolonged harassment of officials, coaches, players or other spectators;
 - F. Bring to or use illicit drugs, alcohol, performance enhancing substances or firearms at any game, practice, or sanctioned event;
 - G. Engage in otherwise unethical conduct in order to gain advantage for the player, the player's family, the player's team, RMSA or another entity with which the individual is somehow affiliated.
7. If such an event such as described in 5 above, should be directed at a player or parent or guardian, he/she will not retaliate in a like manner as that can escalate the incident. The expectation is for self protection if physically attacked, and law enforcement should be contacted in that event.
 - A. the preferred method of response is to file a written complaint with one of the bodies listed in 2 above, in order of precedence as listed, being sure to define the date, time, location, witnesses (if available), and circumstances of such event.
