

RESIDENT SERVICE PLAN

In the name of Allah, the Beneficent, the Merciful

Welcome Letter from the President

Dear Resident: As-Salaamu Alaykum (Peace be upon you)

Welcome to the Hijrah House program, we offer our sincere appreciation for your participation in our program and hope that this will be a mutually benefiting endeavor. We try to be sympathetic to the needs of our residents and strive to make your stay with us although temporary, result in a lasting achievement towards your successful transition back into mainstream society. We understand that each individual is a unique experience and our goal is to help all individuals to be victorious. However, we also realize that success is a product of combined efforts and this idea of sharing and companionship is an essential element of our program. We believe in the One God and His Final Messenger and we pattern our lives and programs in accordance with the guidance He has shown us. We pray that if it is God's will you will use this short time with us as an opportunity to improve your understanding and your actions in the service of the Almighty God, to obey the rules and laws of our society, to be an asset to your community and a productive and viable member of society. In conclusion we truly encourage you to have belief and do righteous actions and have patience and constancy.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

I. Mission Statement

- The mission of the Hijrah House is to provide temporary transitional accommodation and assistance to ex-offenders and assist them in their endeavor to be independent and self-supporting and law abiding citizens of the society. Hijrah House will work with other charities and social service organizations to achieve this objective.

The driving force behind the transitional program will be the Islamic etiquettes (Adab) and principles. The Hijrah House, in partnership with the community, is to provide a program of reintegration into society through self-discipline and sense of responsibility.

II. Guiding Principles

- The number one guiding principle of Hijrah House is for residents to live and understand how to conduct themselves according to the dictates of the Holy Qura'an and the examples of the Prophet Muhammad (SAW)
- We provide an Islamic environment to help residents apply Islamic knowledge to practice.
- We are committed to understand and meet the needs of residents in order to help them reintegrate themselves into society
- We are committed to trusting and respecting each individual resident so that he may experience an enriching environment
- We are committed to continuous improvement.

III. General Information

A. Philosophy

We believe that nothing happens on the earth or in your souls that is not the will of Allah (God), therefore this venture of ours is an opportunity for benefit or harm in accordance with Allah's plan, all good is from Allah (God) and what bad comes from your own selves. We believe that individuals are responsible and accountable for their own deeds. Our goal is to help you choose the good and to forbid the bad. Allah knows and we know not what our future may entail.

B. Objectives

The staff of the Hijrah House will strive to provide an educational and enriching setting in which each resident, consistent with their individual abilities and understanding of Islam will:

1. Practice the principles of Islam as outlined in Qura'an and Hadith
2. Obey the laws of the society
3. Engage in gainful employment
4. Refrain from bad and undesirable conduct
5. Understand and progress in the Deen of Islam and /or the world in general
