OFFICE OF SENATOR HARRY REID
INTERNSHIP APPLICATION DISCLOSURE AND SECURITY QUESTIONS

The following questions are asked of all applicants for an internship in the Office of Senator Harry Reid. A “yes” answer to questions 1-3 or a “no” answer to question 4 is not necessarily a disqualifier.

1. Are there any disciplinary or administrative actions that have been taken against you by your school or are any pending? Please explain.

2. Are there any activities in your background that may be an embarrassment to yourself or the Senator if they were made public? Please explain.

3. Do you have any body art that cannot be concealed by clothing that is appropriate for a professional office setting? Please explain.

4. Are you lawfully present in the United States? Please explain.

SECURITY QUESTIONS:

If you answer “Yes” to any of the questions below, provide your explanation(s) in item 7 later on this page. A “Yes” answer will not necessarily disqualify you for acceptance. In answering the questions below, include convictions resulting from a plea of nolo contendere (no contest), and omit the following: traffic fines of $100.00 or less, any conviction set aside under the Federal Youth Corrections Act of similar state law or any conviction whose record was expunged under federal or state law.

1. Have you ever been convicted of, or forfeited collateral for, a felony violation? Generally, a felony is defined as any violation of law punishable by imprisonment of longer than one year, except for violations called misdemeanors under state law which are punishable by imprisonment of two years or less.	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
