

Annual Meeting Seattle, Washington October 18 – 21, 2012

You Are Invited!

Please join the Transferware Collectors Club for our thirteenth annual meeting held this year in Seattle at the historic Mayflower Park Hotel.

Register
by June 18th!

Your registration fee includes all of the following:

3 nights lodging, 7 presentations, 3 breakfasts, 3 dinners, 1 lunch and 1 boxed lunch, Sunday Show and Sale, buses & entrance fees for all activities, all taxes and gratuities.

Activities

Friday includes a monorail ride to the new Chihuly Garden and Glass House, a tour of Flora Rabinovitch's magnificent collection, and a visit to the Seattle Art Museum. Flora's collection is extensive with many unusual shapes, and is just as intriguing for the artistic way she has displayed it. Saturday night's dinner includes tours of Marcia and Klaus Zech's collections of both blue and white transferware and Mason's Ironstone, with an emphasis on botanical themes. They also collect antique botanical prints.

Presentations

Diane Brooks: "Vignettes – A Transferware Story in Display"

Pat Halfpenny: "From Copper Plate to Dinner Plate"

Patricia Knight: "The Botanical Obsession: Prints and Porcelain"

Janice Paull: "From China to China: The Patterns and Shapes of Early Mason's Ironstone China, C. 1813-1825."

Nick Routson: "American Historical Patterns in Colors Other Than Blue!"

Margaret Sutor: "Major Architects of the Early 19th Century, and How They Relate to Blue Transferware"

Loren Zeller: "Animals on Printed Pots: Understanding the Role Animals Played in Early British Wares c.1790-1820"

All presentations will be on Thursday evening, Saturday all day and Sunday morning.

Optional Day: Thursday, Oct. 18

We depart the historic Mayflower Park Hotel for Suzanne and John Price's home to view their collection and for rolls and coffee. The Price's have some lovely Chinoiserie, ironstone, and a collection of portrait jugs. Then we will head for the ferry to Whidbey Island where we will have lunch at Marcia and Klaus Zech's beach home and view part of their collection. They have blue and white in botanical themes, animal themes, as well as some ironstone. On the way back we will spend a short time in picturesque Langley and then take the ferry and head back to the hotel in time for the opening reception. Cost for this day is $55 per person.

Special Excursion to Victoria, BC October 16 – 17, 2012

You are invited to join this special pre-meeting excursion to beautiful Victoria!

Excursion Itinerary

Join us on an overnight excursion from Seattle, Washington to Victoria, British Columbia, Canada, departing Seattle early on Tuesday, October 16th and returning on Wednesday evening October 17th. We will travel on the high speed catamaran, the Victoria Clipper, to and from Victoria. Upon arrival we will board a bus for a tour of the city and transport to the world famous Butchart Gardens where we will have two hours to visit the garden. High Tea is available there at your option. Then we will return to Victoria and check into our hotel, the Grand Pacific Hotel. That evening we are invited to a reception hosted by the Victoria Ceramics Circle at Leonard Clarke's Pacific Antiques shop. Afterwards we will go to a local pub for a no-host meal.

On Wednesday, we will tour the Native Peoples Exhibit at the Royal British Columbia Provincial Museum. This is a fabulous museum and is particularly known for this exhibit. The museum has an excellent gift shop. Thunderbird Park borders the museum and has a small collection of totem poles, which weather permitting, we will walk through.

The afternoon is free time. Some of you may want to visit the Art Gallery of Greater Victoria, which is very nice. Another option is to take Northwest Afternoon Tea at the Grand Pacific Hotel. Or do both. Others may want to shop or explore downtown Victoria and Bastion Square. We will gather at the pier at 4:30 where we will clear Immigration and board the Clipper at 5pm. It departs at 6 pm, arriving in Seattle at 8:45pm.

If you decide to join us, you will probably need to arrange for two extra nights at the Mayflower Park Hotel:

Monday night and Wednesday night. I have alerted them that we may have some members needing these shoulder nights. Check these items on the Meeting Registration Form.

Package includes: transport to and from Mayflower Park Hotel to Pier 69; Round trip on Victoria Clipper; Overnight lodging in Victoria; Combination tour of Victoria and admission to Butchart Gardens; Reception hosted by Victoria Ceramics Circle; Transportation from hotel to reception, to restaurant and back to hotel; Admission to Royal BC Provincial Museum; Luggage transfer from hotel to Clipper. It includes taxes and gratuities. It does NOT include any meals.

Important Information about This Excursion

1. You must have a valid passport. English visitors please check with your embassy.
2. Canadian laws differ from US laws. Canada considers a D.W.I/ D.U.I a felony. If you have one on your record you likely may not be admitted to Canada.
3. Our excursion is a Victoria Clipper package. As such we will be governed by their terms and conditions, and limited liability agreements. Further we have a minimum number of travelers to reach before we book with them. Should we not reach our minimum we will not go and will refund your deposit.
3. The Victoria Clipper has a snack bar with packaged breakfasts and sandwiches. These cost $ 7 – 8 each. Since we will be traveling during breakfast and dinner time, each person can handle their own meals on the ferry. The Clipper is a credit card only operation. They will not accept any card requiring a PIN. The only thing they will accept cash for is a dose of anti-motion sickness tablets which costs 25cents.
4. You will need to handle your own luggage occasionally. You may want to bring a smaller wheelie bag for this overnight trip. You can leave a larger bag at the Mayflower Park Hotel in a luggage room. Also we will check out of our hotel in Victoria on Wednesday morning, storing our bags with the hotel and be busy during the day. We have arranged for our luggage to be transferred directly to the Clipper sometime after 11 am.
5. We will be walking a lot, so wear comfortable shoes, bring a raincoat/ jacket or bring an umbrella.
6. No meals are included in this package. We will take the bus to a local pub on Tuesday night and eat together, but pay individually. This way everyone can have as much or as little of whatever they want and we can keep the costs down.
7. US currency is accepted just about everywhere. You will not need to exchange money.
8. British Columbia has a HST (harmonized sales tax) of 12%. They have voted to change this, but as of May it has not happened.
9. If you wish to bring something back into the US you have a $200 duty free allowance (with some fine print); antiques (defined as over 100 years old) are duty free. We will go through customs in Seattle. For any questions please check www.CBP.gov.
