BASIC MEDIATION COURSE

30 July 2009 10.00am-6.00pm
31 July 2009 9.00am-5.30pm
1 August 2009 8.30am-5.00pm
2 August 2009 8.30am-4.00pm

This course introduces the basic theories, principles, skills and applications of mediation through a series of presentations, videos, role plays, demonstrations, simulations and discussions. This is a basic course designed for those interested in the application of mediation in the commercial, building, community, family, environmental and planning areas. The course design assumes no experience in mediation practice. Completion of the workshop does not guarantee work as a mediator. An attendance certificate will be issued at completion of the course.

We recommend as preliminary reading:

Fisher and Ury, Getting to Yes (Arrow Books, 1990)

Boulle, Mediation Principles, Process, Practice (Butterworths, 2nd ed 2005)

Moore, The Mediation Process (Jossey-Bass, 1996)

Boulle, Mediation Skills and Techniques (Butterworths, 2001)
