FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 2016

Jesus tells us in the gospel today to love one another. Love has its origin in God and is from God. If we love God through our prayer life then we will then have love for others. Love for God and others brings meaning into our lives. Love for God and others gives us a purpose to continue in our walk with Christ. Some of you have parents who loved you enough to have you get baptized. Your parents knew that this union with Christ is the ultimate goal of a human. Today Jesus says, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Now some of us may say that some people are difficult to love. That may be true but God wants you to approach him to have the strength to love the unlovable. Let us approach Christ each day with our prayer life and then have the capability to love the world. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

Corporal & Spiritual Works of Mercy Ideas for APRIL

Visit the sick. Send cards to friends or relatives who are sick. Visit those in the nursing home. Make or buy some note cards and leave them with stamps so people who are staying there can send letters home. Assist at a local hospice or hospital.

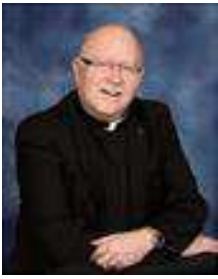

Pray for the Living and the Dead. St. John's is in need of volunteers to lead the Rosary before Masses and at the funeral home. Make a prayer list of people who are sick and pray for them every day. If you hear about something tragic on the news, pray for the people involved. Pray for our seminarians and priests. Pray for all the poor souls in purgatory. Request a Mass intention for a living or deceased person.
