Property Address:

On and after January 1, 2005, California law extends the same rights, protections, benefits, and duties of marriage persons registered as domestic partners in the State of California. Thus, a non-borrowing domestic partner whose domestic partnership is registered in California will be presumed to have a community property interest in the real property of borrowing domestic partner that will secure repayment of this loan transaction regardless of whether the non-borrowing partner holds, or will hold, legal title to the property.

Furthermore, a legal union of two persons of the same sex, other than marriage, that is validly formed in another jurisdiction and that is substantially equivalent to a domestic partnership under California law is recognized as a valid partnership in California regardless of whether it bears the name domestic partnership.

Accordingly, if you, as the borrower, indicate that you are involved in a domestic partnership registered with the State of California or part of a legal union formed in another jurisdiction the Lender will require that your domestic partner also sign the deed of trust or other security instrument (and perhaps other related loan documents) that secures repayment of this loan.

You should consult an attorney for specific legal advice regarding community property rights and for specific legal advice regarding rights, protections, benefits, and duties under California law.

The undersigned Borrower hereby represents to Lender and to Lender's actual or potential agents, brokers, processors, attorneys, insurers, servicers, successors and assigns, the following:
