ABOUT THE PRINTS

Volume Plates. Our selection of original Edward Curtis prints includes 70 photogravures from various volumes of The North American Indian. The bulk of these smaller prints (image size approximately 5"x7") hail from:

Volume 7. The Yakima. The Klickitat. Salishan tribes of the interior. The Kutenai.

Volume 10. The Kwakiutl.

Volume 18. The Chipewyan. The Western Woods Cree. The Sarsi.

These prints come from an established Central Oregon collector and former gallery owner. Roughly half of these prints are professionally and uniformly framed in dark wood with museum-quality glass and archival mats. These prints have been authenticated and valued by Christopher Cardozo of Cardozo Fine Art.

Portfolio Plates. Also available to collectors are 36 prints from Portfolio 13 (The Hupa. The Yurok. The Karok. The Wiyot. Tolowa and Tututni. The Shasta. The Achomawi. The Klamath.)

These large-format prints (image size approximately 14"x18") come from the Praeger Collection and include a copy of Curtis's typed and signed letter to Mr. Praeger (dated May 27, 1911) for provenance. Twenty-five of these prints are professionally and uniformly framed in dark wood with museum-quality glass and archival mats. These prints have been authenticated and valued by Christopher Cardozo of Cardozo Fine Art.

RESERVING & PURCHASING PRINTS

Collectors have three ways to reserve prints:

- Mail the Collector Event Registration Form
- Call 541.330.8759
- Email Dawn Boone, Executive Director at dawn@atelier6000.org

Collectors may reserve most prints for purchase beginning July 20, 2015.

Prints valued at $2000 and above will be sold to the highest bidder (either by live auction or sealed bid) the night of the Collector Event. Minimum reserves must be met. A6 requests collectors to indicate their interest in these higher-value prints on the Collector Event Registration Form. Out-of-area collectors are strongly encouraged to contact A6 to ensure your interests are fully represented in the event of bidding.

TAKING POSSESSION OF PRINTS

Loose Prints. Approximately half of the available prints are loose and may be picked up at the Collector Event or shipped at the buyer's discretion. Shipping and insurance costs will apply.

Framed Prints. Framed prints form A6's "Edward Curtis: Shadow Catcher" exhibit and will be on display for public viewing through October 31, 2015. Collectors may make arrangements with A6 to either ship or pick up prints at the conclusion of the exhibit. Shipping and insurance costs will apply.

ABOUT A6

A6 (also known as Atelier 6000) is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit arts organization focused on printmaking and book arts. A6 expands art appreciation and artistic expression through a variety of programs, from studio workshops to exhibit-based learning experiences. A6 serves students, teachers, artists and the greater community in four Central Oregon counties.
