Tour Cost:                      $99 per person                                      Maximum number: 100

The Hinterland is a nature lovers' paradise, home to some of Australia's rarest animal species, living in one of the world's oldest surviving forests. It is also home to one of Australia's greatest animal mysteries – is the Yowie legend or fact? Experience all the highlights of Springbrook Mountain, the spectacular World Heritage Listed National Park, over 1000m above the Gold Coast skyline. See Antarctic Beech Trees over 2000 years old; stand on the massive caldera of an extinct volcano, the largest in the Southern Hemisphere, while admiring the vistas at one of the best scenic lookouts of the coast. Learn about the ancient forests and features of the national park from your nature guide, as you walk their tracks, visiting five stunning cascading waterfalls along the way.

Inclusions:                Full commentary coach tour ; Tropical Fruit Tasting ; Lunch ; all National Park fees.

Highlights:                Guided Walks ; Springbrook ; visit beautiful Waterfalls ; see the largest volcanic caldera in the Southern Hemisphere ; Numinbah Valley ; Natural Arch ; travel through Sugar Cane Farms ; see prominent Mt Warning (a remaining volcanic plug from ancient times).

What to bring: camera, sunscreen, hat, sunglasses, comfortable walking shoes, cash/ credit card to purchase morning tea at Hinze Dam Café, and souvenirs if you like.
