PARADE ENTRY RESPONSIBILITIES

Each entry will be responsible for its own vehicle, decoration, lights (night parade) driver, and signage. All entries should have some form of Christmas decorations. All entries, including marchers, should be lit for evening viewing. Just when you think you have enough lights.... ADD MORE! Be creative and use any lighted Christmas holiday decorations, string lights, battery operated lights, etc. The most common power source is called an inverter found at most hardware stores and your local Wal-Mart. All entries are encouraged to have music. The selections must be Christmas related and appropriate for YOUNG CHILDREN! Make this year's parade FUN! (No entry may include a live Santa. The "Real Santa" will arrive in high style at the end of the parade.)

PARADE DAY LINEUP AND ROUTE

Report to the lineup site in front of Colleton Center on Hampton Street beginning at 4:00 p.m. The parade site coordinator will assign a unit number to your entry at this time. The parade route will travel up Hampton Street, turn right on Jefferies Highway, turn right on Washington Street, turn right on Neyle Street, turn right on North Miller Street and disperse at the Colleton Center.

NO CANDY MAY BE THROWN FROM ANY PARADE UNIT - NO EXCEPTIONS!

COMPLETED & SIGNED APPLICATION MUST BE RETURNED BY WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2014, to Rice Festival Headquarters located at 430 East Washington Street (Chamber office) in Historic Downtown Walterboro.
