Your Presenter

Deborah A. Russo, Psy.D., is a Licensed Clinical Psychologist in Marietta, Ga. She has twenty-five years of experience as a psychotherapist, educator and trainer, serving adults, adolescent and families. She has also spoken nationally on the topic of eating disorders for the past ten years.

Dr. Russo is passionate about helping parents and families build communication and coping skills that enhance their lives and relationships. She also has a special interest in the importance of faith in achieving health and wholeness. She and her husband are the proud parents of three children, enriching her professional work with parents and families.

Mission Statement

Grace and Growth Counseling Center, Inc. is a private, non-profit organization that recognizes the uniqueness of each individual's journey and life experience.

While grace may lead one to seek wellness, healing and counsel, the client's own efforts (growth) determine the success he or she will have in becoming the person he or she wants to be or feels called to be.

At Grace and Growth, professional, confidential, indepth psychotherapy is offered in a relaxed, private setting in an effort to support personal growth, promote healthy living and cultivate wholeness. Fees are based on a sliding scale and one's ability to pay.

In addition to counseling and psychotherapy, Grace and Growth offers enrichment workshops in specialized areas to individuals, couples, families and groups and continuing education workshops for mental health professionals.

For Parents of Teens and 'Tweens

In today's culture children seem to become adults overnight, and they may make decisions about drugs, sexuality, or aggression and violence before they understand the consequences, a parent's job is more important than ever.

So how can you ensure that your teens and 'tweens develop the skills and character they need to not only survive but to thrive as they gain independence?

Active Parenting of Teens is a foursession program packed with activities, video and discussion. You will learn about a proven approach to parenting, plus indispensable techniques and insights for overcoming obstacles that will bring happiness and harmony into your home. You will leave each session energized and motivated to make positive and realistic changes in your own family's daily life.

Active Parenting of Teens will give you the guidance and support you need to turn the challenges of raising a teenager into opportunities for growth. You will learn:

How teens' changing brains and bodies affect their thoughts, decisions and actions

Methods of respectful discipline

Skills for clear, honest communication

Strategies to prevent risky behavior

Ways to instill responsibility, character and courage

How to create harmony and stability in your family

How to encourage your children to be their very best!

Note: This is an educational course and not intended to provide therapy.
