IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE DEFENDANT
(DOES NOT APPLY TO BALTIMORE CITY)

The Court has ordered enforcement of the judgment for possession which has been entered against you. This means that you can be forcibly removed from the premises at any time after the date of this order, without warning! THERE WILL BE NO FURTHER NOTICE.

To prevent the eviction you have the right to pay the amount that the Court determined to be due, plus costs. If you have made payments since the Court made its determination, have receipts and are able to pay the balance at the time of eviction but the landlord does not agree, the Court will determine the proper amount. However, if the Court has ordered possession without the right of redemption you may NOT remain on the premises, unless you and the Plaintiff agree in writing that you may stay.

On the day of eviction the Sheriff or Constable will meet the Plaintiff and his workers at your home. The Plaintiff's workers will remove the property from the premises. The Sheriff or Constable is not responsible for protecting your property.

If you have arranged to move to another place, please do so immediately because if the Sheriff or Constable is forced to put you out, some of your property could become lost, stolen or damaged. You may also be required to pay moving and storage charges to get back your possessions.

BALTIMORE CITY ONLY IMPORTANT NOTICE TO DEFENDANTS

The landlord in a failure to pay rent case, must provide notice to the tenant of the first scheduled eviction date in two separate ways:

- Mail notice to the tenant by first-class mail with a certificate of mailing at least 14 days in advance of the first scheduled eviction date; and
- Post the notice on the premises at least 7 days in advance of the first scheduled eviction date.
- The day of mailing or posting is Day 1. Day 14 must be no later than the day before the scheduled date of eviction. Count holidays and weekends.

The tenant may challenge whether the notices were properly given. If the tenant challenges the notices or if the sheriff has doubt that the notices were properly given, the sheriff will refer the issue to the judge for decision. If the judge determines that the landlord did not comply with the notice requirements, the eviction will be vacated/cancelled and the landlord will be required to apply for a new Warrant of Restitution.

If the notice challenge is determined in the landlord's favor, the sheriff will execute the eviction immediately.

The landlord is strictly prohibited from putting the abandoned property in the street, the sidewalk, alleys, or on any public property. Anyone who illegally dumps abandoned property from an eviction is guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to a penalty of up to $1,000 for each day of unlawful dumping. The landlord may dispose of the abandoned property by transporting it to a licensed landfill or solid waste facility, donating it to charity, or some other lawful means.

On eviction day any personal property left in or around the rental unit is considered abandoned. When the sheriff returns possession of the rental property to the landlord, any of the tenant's personal property left in or around the rental unit is considered abandoned. The tenant has no right to the property.
