Describe your yoga experience. Please include teachers you have studied with and the methods or types of yoga that have been influential to you.

How long have you been practicing yoga?

Please describe your yoga practice; include content of practice and length of time spent on your daily personal practice. This can include asana, breathing, meditation or other practices that you consider yogic.

Are you already teaching yoga formally or informally? Please give details on your teaching experience length of time teaching and what type of students (e.g. beginners, seniors, special needs, meditation, friends or family).

What is your educational background? (Please include any yoga training as well as other schools you have attended and dates and degrees or certificates received).

What do you feel your main strengths and weaknesses are as a yoga practitioner and/or teacher?

What is your intention for taking this training? Please describe in at least 100 words why you want to be a yoga teacher, or to gain a deeper understanding of yourself through this training.

What are your expectations upon completion of this training?

Do you have any physical or emotional conditions that could affect your participation in this training? Please answer carefully and honestly.

Please note: This training is highly experiential in nature. You will be working deeply with yourself, closely with other individuals and the group as a whole. You will be presented with a range of different teaching and learning styles some of which you may be unaccustomed to. While emotional issues can sometimes arise, participants need to process, express and contain these experiences appropriately. If you are currently undergoing psychiatric or psychotherapy treatment for issues which are still very traumatic for you, you may wish to discuss attending this training with your therapist or health care professional.

Are you currently on any medications? Note which ones and the purpose of the medication.

I have answered these questions honestly and submit them as my application to this training.
