

STATE LIBRARY OF OHIO

Monthly Report, October 31, 2013

Reports are posted on WebJunction Ohio at <http://www.webjunction.org/content/webjunction/partners/ohio/oh-reports/statelibrarian.html>

Affordable Care Act

- The Healthcare Marketplace, created by the Affordable Care Act, opened Oct 1. As providers of Internet access and digital literacy training for patrons, public libraries can anticipate intensified demand for computer services. To assist public librarians with this anticipated need, the State Library of Ohio has put together trainings and other resources for library staff.
- A page has been created on the State Library website, <http://library.ohio.gov/aca>. This page will be continuously updated as more information and resources are developed and become available. Libraries are encouraged to check the website on a regular basis.
- Questions can be addressed to Mandy Knapp, aknapp@library.ohio.gov or Evan Struble, estruble@library.ohio.gov.

Choose to Read Ohio

- The latest Ohio READ poster featuring a CTRO author depicts Robin Yocum, author of The Essay and CTRO title Favorite Sons. All the Ohio READ posters may be viewed and downloaded here: <http://www.library.ohio.gov/marketing/mediacenter/readposter>
- Choose to Read Ohio spotlights Ohio authors and promotes reading across Ohio. Visit the CTRO webpage, <http://library.ohio.gov/ctro>, to view the CTRO booklists and to download readers' toolkits, author READ posters, and other resources.

Everyone ON

- The Everyone On promotional campaign encourages people to learn to do "one thing better online". People are directed to <http://www.everyoneon.org/> to use the zip code locator tool to "Find Free Training Classes Near You".
- Instructions for updating and editing library information are at <http://everyoneon.adcouncil.org/assets/19/Training%20Site%20Locator%20Tool.zip>. Libraries are encouraged to enter important information about their facilities and the training and resources they offer. All Ohio libraries offer online training through Learning Express Library and Job and Career Accelerator.

Guiding Ohio Online

- Guiding Ohio Online will engage AmeriCorps members to perform training sessions, hands-on help, and other services to fulfill the vision of every Ohioan being able to fully participate in e-government, search for jobs online, understand the risks and benefits to internet finance, connect with family online, and protect personal information in the digital age. Guiding Ohio Online will target populations in rural Ohio resulting in enhanced digital skills. The one-year planning grant runs from August 1, 2013 – July 31, 2014.
- Questions should be addressed to Mandy Knapp, aknapp@library.ohio.gov.

ILEAD USA

- The third and final in-person session took place at Deer Creek State Park October 22 – 24, 2013. On the final day of the session the three ILEAD USA teams presented their projects to the State Library Board.
- Products from the three teams include two websites and an app. Project Engage was a digitization project: www.digitizeohio.com. IP Hub for Makers was a Cleveland based maker hub project: <http://clemakerhub.org>, and Lost in Translation developed a app to translate "library lingo," Google Play (Android): <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=org.ohionet.lingo> and iOS: <https://itunes.apple.com/us/app/know-the-lingo/id726577675?mt=8>
- A full list of ILEAD USA participants is available at <http://library.ohio.gov/blog/?p=4099>. State Library staff members Kirstin Krumsee and Jennifer Johnson were participants in ILEAD.
- State Library of Ohio staff members who contributed to the planning and implementation of the October ILEAD retreat include Matthew Dyer, Missy Lodge, Mandy Knapp, Shannon Kupfer, and Evan Struble.
- The State Library of Ohio board attended the ILEAD presentations. State Library staff made the trip as well to support the graduates: State Librarian Beverly Cain, Bill Morris, Marsha McDevitt-Stredney, Jonathan Campbell, and David Namiotka

The vision of the State Library of Ohio is a Smarter Ohio where every Ohioan can access the necessary resources to be engaged citizens, excel at their jobs, participate in the workforce, and pursue their passions and interests.

STATE LIBRARY OF OHIO

- ILEAD USA was an immersive continuing education program that develops library leaders through projects based on community needs using technology. The State Library is a partner in a $470,000 Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program awarded by IMLS to the State Library of Illinois. Partnering states are Illinois, Colorado, Iowa, Ohio and Utah.
- The State Library of Illinois has applied for an IMLS Laura Bush 21st Century Library Program grant for an ILEAD USA program in 2015. The State Library of Ohio has indicated we will participate should the grant be awarded.
- Questions regarding ILEAD USA should be addressed to Evan Struble, estruble@library.ohio.gov.

Library Leadership Ohio

- Library Leadership Ohio 2014 will take place at the Holiday Inn Worthington, July 22-25, 2014 (Tuesday evening – Friday afternoon). Cost to participants is $425. Ivy Group will again facilitate.
- Application forms and additional information are available at: <http://libraryleadership.org>. Completed applications are due to the State Library by 11:50 p.m. December 16.
- A list of Library Leadership Ohio Alumni is available at <http://libraryleadershipohio.org/about/alumni/>. Please send updates to Missy Lodge, mlodge@library.ohio.gov.
- Leadership Ohio 2012 participants have submitted their final reports on their group projects. Descriptions of projects and final outcomes are at <http://libraryleadershipohio.org/about/projects/>.
- The mission of Library Leadership Ohio is to develop future leaders for Ohio libraries, to help Ohio library staff become leaders in the communities they serve and to encourage Ohio librarians to work collaboratively to support the mission of the State Library and the purposes of LSTA within their institution. Questions regarding Library Leadership Ohio should be addressed to Missy Lodge, mlodge@library.ohio.gov.
