Could the Parish or Dicoese develop a certificate program of several topics that can also be accessed remotely or on-line? I would be interested in that. It is just hard for me to commit to a weekly event in person on a continuing basis.	4/7/2013 11:52 AM

35	To the sick and homebound-to have more connection with the church, visits by a priest twice a year for confession, anointing, etc. It would be good to have a parishioners group to visit the homebound as a social visit and connection with the parish. 54	I think we have strong Youth programs and good Adult programs for older members of the parish community.... it's the folks in their 30's and 40's, who are extremely busy with their work and family activities, that it seems hardest to craft programs for that would fit into their lives and work well for them. Many of these may have gone to Catholic grade schools and high schools - but now no longer go to church on a regular basis... but would probably come back if we gave them a good path for doing so.	4/9/2013 5:27 PM

1	I took the baptism class last year and was disappointed. I thought it would be a "real" class instead of just a pamphlet and information. I know that there are many, many baptisms and families, but could it be a little more substantive for those of us interested in taking one? Perhaps a "class" for God parents maybe? I take my God-parent duties seriously and buy books and make sure they go to mass, but I'd like to do more and teach them more about God.	4/25/2013 9:36 PM

21	The teachings in the Baptism preparation classes could probably be better taught in a one-day retreat style meeting. It will allow the godparents to bond with the parents and child in a more intimate setting, and it will allow them to be more fully present in learning the baptismal teachings because it is just one day that they can afford to take off, rather than several nights when their attention is never fully given.	4/10/2013 5:51 PM

32	I am one of the current teachers of the Baptism classes. I think we could do a better job of teaching the parents what having their children Baptized means in terms of their commitment to the faith. Many of the parents are not practicing Catholics and/or are not married in the church. I believe many of them Baptize their children to please grandparents or other relatives. I try to emphasize to the attendees of my classes the importance of making the faith a part of their lives and their childrens' lives by attending Mass and seeing their children attend Mass and attend chatechism classes when they are of age. I encourage the parents to bring their children to Mass from the very beginning and to pray with their children from infancy. This is not a formal part of the material we use and I feel it should be. I can't say if it is appropriate to refuse Baptism, but I think the parents need more instruction on the responsibility after Baptism.	4/7/2013 10:03 AM

100	I don't see an item for "Things I'd like to see improved at Holy Spirit" so I write it here. I am a Vietnamese-American parishioner at Holy Spirit. I'd like to see the Vietnamese choirs improve on their voice production and sound knowledge. These two are somewhat tied together: not knowing the signing technique leads to weak and nasal sound, in turn they use the extra sound system for help. But what it does is just amplifying their unpleasant voices and brings feedback problems to a sacred worship environment. We have 40 - 50 people in the 6:30pm Sunday choir, why do we need 10 mics and extra speakers? Jim helped upgrade our sound system recently. That should be more than enough. I have heard many Vietnamese choirs. They all have this the same problem except for Magnifica Chorale. They practice hard and sing the right way. I heard them sing at this girl's funeral Mass at St. Vincent de Paul a couple of years ago. They sang in 3 languages English, Vietnamese, and Latin. Used nothing but the church's sound system. And it was amazingly beautiful. If they can do it, so can we. Let's encourage our Vietnamese choir members and conductors to improve themselves. In fact, I strongly recommend them to go register to Magnifica Chorale to learn. I am sure they won't mind. After all, Music ministry is an important service in our Church. We should get serious on serving God and His people through this ministry. When I love someone, I give him/her my very best. Should my God, Who's Only Son died for me that I may have life, Who gave me His True Flesh and Blood in the Eucharist, Whom I should love above all things, receives the best of my very best? If I gave him my mediocre effort, maybe... I haven't loved Him as much as I should.	4/14/2013 10:30 PM

111	1. Like to see the Bulletin upgraded to contain a section devoted to Catechesis -- example every week go over a particular tenant of the faith and offer references from Scripture and Traditional (eg. Church Fathers, Creeds) etc.) 2. I like to see the physical aspects of our Church appear more Catholic -- I like the introduction of Banners in the parking lot (excellent idea) -- perhaps add some more stain-glass (within the glass borders of the sanctuary/quiet room) or another statue of a saint or an upgrade to the Stations of the Cross (one barely knows they are there). 3. Develop a Holy Spirit Smartphone APP - which has the church Mass times, Confession times, a Saint of the Day, a Church Mode (which allows one to turn off the phone prior to Mass), etc. This APP would be very appealing to most with a smartphone. 4. Offer more times for the sacrament of Confession	4/14/2013 12:22 PM

112	Try to realize a survey for the couples (within our Parish Community, of course) after they've been married 5 years, 10 years, ect. So we can figure out how many couples are still staying together, how many of them were separated, divorced..	4/13/2013 10:28 PM

117	A Cleaner Church. The carpet, floors and pew areas are a disgrace to the House of God. Someone should go to St. Vincent De Paul's and see what a clean church looks like! If the custodians are too lazy to clean the floors and carpet perhaps they need to be replaced by someone willing to work and keep God's House in good order. It is depressing and a disgrace to see the church in such an unclean state.	4/10/2013 7:17 PM

119	Holy Spirit needs a more organized Confirmation program! Is there even a core curriculum of Confirmation 1 and 2? The program seems like such a mess. HOLY SPIRIT PARISH SURVEY 2013

132	A way to ask faith questions and get qualified answers. I don't feel that there is enough time for confession. It would be useful if a priest could hear confessions before or after daily mass. In that case, perhaps confessions could be reduced or even cancelled on Saturday. The parish's social activities are separated by ethnic differences. It would be good if we could define a single yearly event that could draw in all cultures for a night of fun to show that we are all basically the same. For example, we could have a night where our different cultures could all prepare different ethnic foods so everyone could sample whichever food was available. Also, this night could feature different types of music and different cultural dances. Having people mingle in a sense of fun would draw people together. It is a shame that there is not more communication between the different cultural communities at Holy Spirit, especially between the Vietnamese and other communities. This may be a result of the older Vietnamese not willing to change. If so, this will probably change in time as younger Vietnamese adjust to American life. To use the screen, there should never be spotlights shining on the screen as is done often. This makes it hard to read the screen. The Adult Faith Formation is good as was the Bible study program. However, the missing element in educating parishioners is to have a way for parishioners to submit questions on our faith and have them answered by a knowledgeable committee, and signed off by a priest. This has been mentioned in many of our past annual meetings in October when parishioners have submitted suggestions for pastoral committee action but it has never come to fruition. An effort of this sort was started several years ago by the Knights of Columbus called "What Catholic Believes". Questions of parishioners were answered in a one page bulletin insert. but reproductive costs became too expensive for the Knights to afford so the program was stopped. However, with current technology, this program could be restarted with bulletin publication paid by the church or by publication on the church website with minimal expense. Father Jeff has an excellent presentation on natural family planning (NFP) which should be a must for young married couples to hear.	4/15/2013 11:54 AM

136	Advocate for an end to abortion. There is little or no discussion from the pulpit during Roe vs. Wade Sunday, respect life Sunday in October, or during voting season. Legislative issues like parental notification and same-sex marriage were ignored. Other churches had banners during Lent--40 days of Lent--40 days of Life. This event is ignored by our church. Adoration is sparsely attended at night (1 or 2)--need recruitment from the pulpit. People with walkers do not have a designated place to sit and put their walkers.	4/15/2013 10:16 AM

181	Tôi có những ý kiến như sau: 1. Người đứng lên kêu gọi mọi người giữ trật tự và tắt điện thoại trong lễ Phục Sinh nên có thái độ khiêm tốn hơn. Anh ta quá cao ngạo từ thái độ đến cách nói chuyện 2. Thánh lễ Giáng Sinh và Phục sinh nên có những bài hát mới, những gương mặt mới. 7 năm tôi định cư tại Hoa Kỳ và đi lễ Thánh Linh, tôi gần như biết hết ca đoàn sẽ hát bài nào sau bài đọc nào. Cần có một sự thay đổi mới mẻ và trẻ trung hơn 3. Ba cháu gái con tôi rất thích 3 bạn trẻ hay solo trong lễ 1:30. Tôi không đi lễ giờ đó, nhưng tôi rất vui vì con tôi chịu đi lễ Việt lúc trưa. 4. Đức Ông rất thực tế và giảng rất súc tích	4/10/2013 9:59 AM

183	Sometimes I go to mass 1:30, sometimes I go to mass 6:30. I think 2 choirs are excellent. I love the younger one because they sing very happy and full of energy. I am Phillipino, my wife is Vietnamese, my wife says that she has a belief that Vietnamese Bible Songs will be sing in the next generation! Also, the night choir, 6:30, they are good, but my wife says that sometimes she doesn't understand what they sing!	4/10/2013 9:42 AM

204	People are very nice...the priests and sisters and staff are wonderful human beings!! The church is kept very clean. I go to church every week with my children. I am embarrassed to admit that I do not know all the priests name..although I do know their faces! So I hope at the beginning of each mass, the priest would announce (or introduce) his name...it might be a redundant practice, but it would help us to get to know our priests better. My favorite priest is father O'Praeme (?) I do not know his first name. I just remember this past Sunday, April 7th, 2013 (12 noon mass) he was telling the story about his vocational understudy in Italy in the past, and he spelled his last name..he was talking about the SJ title... He is a very skillful communicator, and it helps for my 12-yr & 15-yr old to enjoy going to church!! He can connect to young children! We also love father Tuan!!	4/8/2013 2:19 PM

206	In every mass the priests should remind the congregation that the mass is not complete until the last blessing. People leave after communion. Ushers should see to it that people should not have another seat for their purses in order to give space to others. esp. on big feast days celebration and when the church is full. Modesty should be the rule for everybody attending church and weddings-esp. the members of the wedding party.	4/8/2013 1:43 PM

236	I love Holy Spirit! The people are friendly and I enjoy the liturgy. I am a cradle Catholic, but I did not attend mass on a weekly basis until about 7 years ago. The crucifix above the altar is spectacular and I visit Mary's grotto on a weekly basis. Thank you for that.	4/7/2013 12:01 PM
