All Together Now

We are a diverse cultural organization that supports children, new immigrants, and seniors while educating the public about our Japanese Canadian history.

Together with your support we can focus on:

Supporting the seniors that have laid a foundation for a lasting Japanese Canadian legacy through our two care facilities and evidence-based programming

Providing educational programs for young people — from early childhood to young adulthood

Developing a Welcome Centre for New Immigrants to provide a cohesive support system that helps build a sense of community

Welcoming a broad audience to explore and learn about Japanese Canadian history and culture
