Form W-4 (2013)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2013 expires February 17, 2014. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,000 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2013. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (single) or $180,000 (married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

EMPLOYEE'S INSTRUCTIONS

Arizona law requires your employer to withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for work done in Arizona. This amount is applied to your Arizona income tax due when you file your tax return. The amount withheld is a percentage of your gross taxable wages of every paycheck. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. Complete this form to select a percentage and any extra amount to be withheld from each paycheck.

What are my "Gross Taxable Wages"?

For withholding purposes, your "gross taxable wages" are the wages that will generally be in box 1 of your federal Form W-2. It is your gross wages less any credits/deductions, such as your share of health insurance premiums.

New Employees

Complete this form in the first five days of employment to select an Arizona withholding percentage. You may also have your employer withhold an extra amount from each paycheck. If you do not file this form, the department requires your employer to withhold 2.7% of your gross taxable wages.

Current Employees

If you want to change the current amount withheld, you must file this form to change the Arizona withholding percentage or change the extra amount withheld.

What Should I do With Form A-4?

Give your completed Form A-4 to your employer.

Electing a Withholding Percentage of Zero

You may elect an Arizona withholding percentage of zero if you expect to have no Arizona income tax liability for the current year. Arizona tax liability is gross tax liability less any tax credits, such as the family tax credit, school tax credits, or credits for taxes paid to other states. If you make this election, your employer will not withhold Arizona income tax from your wages for payroll periods beginning after the date you file the form. Zero withholding does not relieve you from paying Arizona income taxes that might be due at the time you file your Arizona income tax return. If you have an Arizona tax liability when you file your return or if at any time during the current year conditions change so that you expect to have a tax liability, you should promptly file a new Form A-4 and choose a percentage that applies to you.

Voluntary Withholding Election by Certain Nonresident Employees

Compensation earned by nonresidents while physically working in Arizona for temporary periods is subject to Arizona income tax. However, under Arizona law, compensation paid to certain nonresident employees is not subject to Arizona income tax withholding. These nonresident employees need to review their situations and determine whether they should elect to have Arizona income taxes withheld from their Arizona source compensation. Nonresident employees may request that their employer withhold Arizona income taxes by completing this form to elect an Arizona withholding percentage.

ASRS LONG TERM DISABILITY (LTD) PROGRAMAnswers to Commonly Asked Questions*What are my LTD benefits?

After being off work for six months due to your disability, eligible employees will receive benefits under Arizona State Retirement System's (ASRS) Long Term Disability Income Plan (LTD) equal to 66 2/3% of your monthly earnings, less deductions for any other income you may receive.

Because the LTD plan is partially funded by your employer, 50% of any benefits that you receive will be subject to taxes.

When should I file my LTD claim?

Your LTD claim should be filed as soon as you are aware that you will be unable to perform the duties of your job position for a period of six months. You do not need to be completely out of work – time you are working limited duty, or working with restrictions, will count toward your six month period.

LTD claims must be filed within 12 months of the first date you are unable to perform all of the duties of your job, so it is important that you return your completed application packet to your employer as soon as possible.

When will I receive my LTD payments?

ASRS and Sedgwick want you to receive the LTD benefits for which you may be eligible as quickly as possible. Claim processing timeframes vary depending on what additional information is needed in order to make a decision. Sedgwick tries, whenever possible, to make a claim determination within 90 days of receipt of your application. If this is not possible, you will be notified of the delay, what information is needed, and when we anticipate a decision will be made.

Once your LTD claim has been approved, your benefits will be sent to you on a monthly basis.

Who do I call if I do not receive my check or if I have questions about my payment?

Call Sedgwick at (800) 495-9301 if you have any questions about your LTD payment.

What if I have questions about the amount of my LTD payment?

The actual amount of your LTD paycheck is determined by two factors.

- Sedgwick determines your LTD benefit based on your contributions made to the Arizona State Retirement System (ASRS), which is provided by the ASRS.
- Sedgwick withholds all applicable taxes and offsets (i.e., Social Security, Workers' Compensation, etc.) from your LTD payment to arrive at the actual amount of benefit you receive in your check. Sedgwick can tell you how your LTD benefit was calculated.

How can I check the status on my claim?

Once Sedgwick has received your completed claim packet from your employer, you can call Sedgwick's automated voice response unit at (800) 495-9301, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to check the status on your claim. You will simply need to enter your social security number and year of birth in order to hear information on your claim. If, after listening to the voice response unit, you still have questions on your claim, you can speak to a Customer Service Representative between the hours of 5:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

You can also check the status of your claim and get payment information, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, at Sedgwick's website, www.Sedgwickcms.com/calabasas. In order to use the website, you will need your claim number (which you can get by calling Sedgwick, or by looking at the "Explanation of Benefits" portion of your benefit check), then you can log on to the "Employee" section of the website, and you will be required to create a log-in ID and password for your claim. This allows secured access to your claim information.

What do I have to do during my disability?

You have a very important role in the LTD process. After all, it's your health and your income we're talking about here. To ensure you receive all LTD benefits to which you are entitled, you must:

- Complete, sign and return the initial claim packet to your employer as soon as possible
- See your doctor on a regular basis and have your doctor complete any Disability Progress Reports that Sedgwick sends to you.
- Stay in touch with Sedgwick and provide information as requested.

You may also be asked to file for Social Security Disability benefits. If this is the case, you will be required to pursue all appeals until you are awarded benefits or have attended a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge.

What happens if Sedgwick cannot get information from my doctor?

Since you are making the claim for LTD benefits, it is your responsibility to ensure that your doctor completes the Attending Physician Statement. If Sedgwick does not receive objective clinical information from your doctor that supports your disability, your LTD claim cannot be approved. If your doctor refuses to complete the form, then contact Sedgwick for assistance.

When do my LTD benefits end?

Your long term disability payments end on the earliest of the following dates. Benefits will not be payable beyond:

- The date you are no longer considered totally disabled under the plan.
- The date you are no longer under the direct care of a doctor or you do not provide requested satisfactory evidence of your continuing disability upon request from Sedgwick.
- The later of the following:
 - ❖ Your earliest normal retirement date according to Arizona Revised Statutes;
 - ❖ The month following sixty months of payments, if your disability occurs before age sixty-five;
 - ❖ The month following attainment of age seventy, if your disability occurs at age sixty-five but before age sixty-nine;
 - ❖ The month following twelve months of payments, if your disability occurs at or after age sixty-nine.
- The date you begin to receive retirement benefits or disability retirement benefits under the ASRS Plan or from any other retirement plan established by state law.
- The date you withdraw employee contributions with interest and cease to be a participant in the ASRS Plan.
