

The Inter-Congregational Addiction Program

ICAP is a network of recovering addicted women in religious orders. It helps Roman Catholic women who are, or have been members of religious orders and are alcohol or chemically dependent, compulsive eaters, compulsive gamblers, etc. In addition to its summer retreats, ICAP networks sisters through information, referrals, assistance in meeting other members, telephone support, and email support.

The Inter-Congregational Addiction -Program (ICAP) is offering two week long 12-Step retreats for women religious in the Summer of 2013.

These "interactive" retreats are based on the 12 Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous, and are intended for women religious who have been "working a program" of 12-Step recovery for at least six months. The purpose of the retreats is to strengthen recovery through the sharing of experience, strength and hope with other women religious in recovery. Opportunities may include the Sacrament of Reconciliation, Eucharist or non-liturgical group prayer, massage therapy by certified therapists, and walking. Retreatants have private rooms, and the meals accommodate special nutritional needs.

REGISTRATION FEE for the week-long retreat, including meals and overnight accommodations, is $405 for the Darien, IL retreat facility and $260 for the Lake Orion facility; scholarships are available based on need.

CANCELLATION and REFUNDS:

A refund of fees paid, less $50, will be made if cancellation notification is received prior to start of the retreat date.
