IRA withdrawals are subject to 10% federal income tax withholding, unless you elect not to have withholding apply, or you elect to have an additional amount withheld. Federal regulations require us to send you a reminder notice of your previously chosen withholding election. See page 2 of this form for the withholding notice information.

____ We are currently withholding _____ % federal income tax from your IRA withdrawals.

____ We are currently not withholding federal income tax from your IRA withdrawals. (Please see the "Caution" section on the second page of this notice regarding penalties that may be assessed for not paying enough tax during the year.)

Unless I provide the Credit Union with further written instructions otherwise, my previously chosen withholding election will remain in effect. No action is required on your part if you choose not to change your federal income tax withholding amount. You may change your withholding election at any time by simply completing the "Change of Withholding Election" section on this form and returning it to the credit union.

Withholding Notice Information For IRA Distributions

(Form W-4P/OMB No. 1545-0415)

Purpose - The Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form is for U.S. citizens, resident aliens, or their estates that are recipients of nonperiodic IRA distributions. You may use this form to choose (a) not to have any income tax withheld from the IRA distributions (except for IRA distributions to U.S. citizens delivered outside the United States or its possessions) or (b) to have an additional amount of tax withheld.

Sign this form: The Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election indicated on this form is not valid unless you sign it.

Additional Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Other income: If you have a large amount of income from other sources not subject to withholding (such as interest, dividends, or capital gains), consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) to get Form 1040-ES and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax. You can also get forms and publications from the IRS Web Site at www.irs.gov.

Withholding From IRA Distributions: Generally, Federal income tax withholding applies to the taxable part of payments made from IRAs. However, qualified distributions from a Roth IRA are nontaxable and, therefore, not subject to withholding.

IRA Distributions: Your payer must withhold a flat 10% from your IRA distributions unless you choose not to have income tax withheld. You can choose not to have income tax withheld from your distribution by checking the first line in the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form. Generally, your choice not to have income tax withheld will apply to any later distribution from the same IRA. You may specify an additional amount you want withheld by checking the second line and indicating the amount you want withheld.

Choosing Not to Have Income Tax Withheld: You (or in the event of death, your beneficiary or estate) can choose not to have income tax withheld from your IRA distributions by checking the first line in the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form. For an estate, the election to have no income tax withheld may be made by the executor or personal representative of the decedent, using the estate's EIN. This choice does not apply to certain recipients who have payments delivered outside the United States or its possessions. See the section titled Payments to Foreign Persons and Payments Outside the United States for this information.

Caution: There are penalties for not paying enough tax during the year, either through withholding or estimated tax payments. New retirees, especially, should see Pub 505. It explains your estimated tax requirements and describes penalties in detail. You may be able to avoid quarterly estimated tax payments by having enough tax withheld from your IRA distribution using the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form.

Payments to Foreign Persons and Payments Outside the United States: Unless you are a nonresident alien, withholding is required on IRA distributions that are delivered outside the United States or its possessions. You cannot choose not to have income tax withheld on line 1 of the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section of this form.

In the absence of a tax treaty exemption, nonresident aliens, nonresident alien beneficiaries, and foreign estates generally are subject to a 30% withholding tax under section 1441 on IRA distributions from U.S. sources. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for details. A foreign person should submit Form W-8BEN, Certificate of Foreign Status of Beneficial Owner for United States Tax Withholding, to the payer before receiving any payments. The Form W-8BEN must contain the foreign person's TIN.

Revoking Your "No Withholding" Choice: If you previously chose not to have income tax withheld and you now want withholding, check the second line in the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form.

Your previously filed Withholding Election will remain in effect if you do not complete the Withholding Election or Change of Withholding Election section on this form.

Statement of Income Tax Withheld from Your IRA: By January 31 of next year, your payer will furnish a statement to you on Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc., showing the total amount of your IRA distribution and the total income tax withheld during the year. If you are a foreign person who has provided your payer with Form W-8BEN, your payer instead will furnish a statement to you on Form 1042-S, Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, by March 15 of next year.
