

Montessori Transition Materials for the Child Aged 5 to 7: Biology and Geography

Montessori offers children a continuum of materials and activities. Some of these are appropriate both at the end of the Children's House and at the beginning of the primary years. As children move from the first plane of development to the second one simply adjusts the way one offers the materials and activities to the children. The workshop covers biology activities that include familiarisation activities along with early botany and zoology materials and activities. Geography activities include both physical and political geography.

This workshop is appropriate for those who work in the Children's House and those who work in the early primary level.
