

Ursuline Academy's Lions in Waiting Learning to Lead Summer Camp 2011

Lions in Waiting is a minority mentoring and leadership development program held at Ursuline Academy. We invite girls from any minority group, who are entering the 5th through 8th grade, and have a passion for learning. We are looking for participants who exhibit energy, spirit and leadership. At the Learning to Lead camp, we will help cultivate, nurture and develop the potential that each girl already possesses.

The mission of the Learning to Lead camp is to inspire, educate and prepare girls, from any underrepresented group, for the academic, cultural and social challenges of a college preparatory high school environment while building self-confidence.

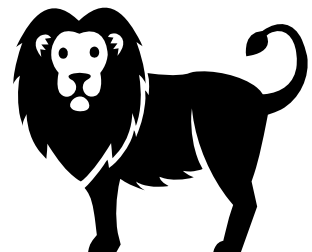

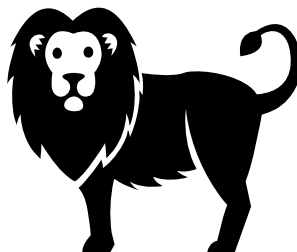

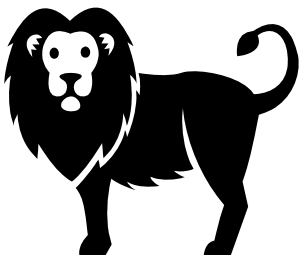

Ursuline Academy empowers young women to recognize her unique gifts, give voice to her ideals, to strive for personal and academic excellence, to seek justice through actions inspired by Gospel values, and to accept the challenge of human freedom with its accompanying responsibilities. Ursuline welcomes diversity and fosters community in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

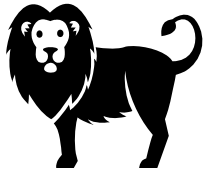

Come and join us this summer to learn, have fun and to see what Ursuline Academy has to offer. This year the camp will be offering two sessions June 13th through the 16th. The first session is 8:30 to noon and the second one is 12:30 to 4 P.M. Campers can attend one or both sessions. The camp contains a full agenda of art, asset building, leadership skills, community service, drama, English, social studies, math, music, research, physical education, technology and science. These topics will be presented in a fun and informative way.

Camp dates are June 13th-16th, 2011. Session 1- 8:30 a.m. -noon $75 Session 2 12:30 p.m. -4 $75

- attend one or both sessions
- Stay for both sessions for only $125 (Save $25)! Bring a packed lunch!
