

Research Log Template: This template provides a model for the form your research log might take. Modify it if you need more space in any of the categories.

Date	Tool or Source Used (i.e., Library Catalog, Academic Search Premier, Google Scholar ) & keywords, phrases, or search terms used	Summary of the message, method and medium. (What does it say and how does it say it?)	Reflection/evaluation on its relevance to your object/topic. (How does it affect your thinking?)	Notes: key words in this source to use for additional searches, definitions, quotations, interesting or surprising claims, puzzling questions or further issues to follow up on, for example

ENGS 50: Expository Writing
Sheila Boland Chira
Spring 2014

Date	Tool or Source Used (i.e., Library Catalog, Academic Search Premier, Google Scholar ) & keywords, phrases, or search terms used	Summary of the message, method and medium. (What does it say and how does it say it?)	Reflection/evaluation on its relevance to your object/topic. (How does it affect your thinking?)	Notes: key words in this source to use for additional searches, definitions, quotations, interesting or surprising claims, puzzling questions or further issues to follow up on, for example