National Association of Women Lawyers Annual Awards Luncheon

honoring

Judge Katharine S. Hayden

Arabella Babb Mansfield Award

Tuesday, July 18, 2006 – noon to two o'clock
The Waldorf-Astoria, NYC

The Hon. Katharine Sweeney Hayden entered law school after working as a fiction editor and then as a teacher of college English. After graduating from Seton Hall Law School in 1975, she clerked for New Jersey Supreme Court Justice Robert L. Clifford, and then served as an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey. Thereafter she entered private practice, eventually specializing in family law. She was elected by her peers as a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Attorneys and as a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

Judge Hayden was appointed to the New Jersey Superior Court in 1991, and served as a trial judge in the Family Part and Criminal Division. In the latter assignment, she established the Drug Court for Essex County, New Jersey, and served as its first judge. In 1997, she was appointed to the federal bench for the District of New Jersey, Newark vicinage. Since 2003, she has been a member of the adjunct faculty at Seton Hall Law School.

The Arabella Babb Mansfield Award is the highest award given by the National Association of Women Lawyers. The Award is given in recognition of professional achievement, positive influence and valuable contribution to women in the law and in society. The Award is named after the first American woman admitted to the State Bar in the United States and is usually given once a year. Recent past recipients include:

1996: Martha Barnett, Florida	2001: Chief Justice Mary Ann McMorrow, Supreme Court of Illinois
1997: Judge Bernice Bouie Donald, U.S. District Court, Western District of Tennessee	2002: Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg, United States Supreme Court
1998: Judge Ilana Diamond Rovner, U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit	2003: State Senator Sheila Kuehl, California
1999: Judge Phyllis Kravitch, U.S. Court of Appeals, Eleventh Circuit	2004: Presiding Justice Leah Ward Sears, Supreme Court of Georgia
2000: Judge Sonia Sotomayor, U.S. Court of Appeals, Second Circuit	2005: Judge Ann Claire Williams, U.S. Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit

About NAWL

The National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL) is a national voluntary legal professional organization devoted to the interests of women lawyers and women's rights. Founded in 1899, the Association has historically served as an educational forum and an active voice for the concerns of women in the legal profession. Among its recent activities are:

- ◆ The continuing series, "Taking Charge of Your Career," designed to provide the skills and information that women lawyers need to reach leadership levels in their practice settings;
- ◆ The annual General Counsel Institute, dedicated to helping senior in-house counsel excel at the highest level;
- ◆ The program "From Backpack to Briefcase," aimed at helping law students successfully move from law school to the workplace;
- ◆ Publication of leading articles relating to women in the law in the quarterly Women Lawyers Journal;
- ◆ Amicus support in the United States Supreme Court on issues of interest to women;
- ◆ Networking and leadership opportunities for women lawyers at all levels; and
- ◆ Publication of the Seventh Edition of the National Directory of Women-Owned Law Firms and Women Lawyers[®], designed to assist in-house counsel with locating women lawyers and to assist women lawyers with referring legal work.

Please take a moment to join the National Association of Women Lawyers. NAWL welcomes men and women lawyers as members.
