Edmund Bruyere is a graduate student at Loyola University Chicago. Mr. Bruyere will be speaking from his own experience growing up in a violent home. As a Native American, Mr. Bruyere provides unique insight into the influence of culture on family dynamics; he is currently writing a book about his experiences.

The Step-Up program presentation will be given by the Models for Change – Domestic Violence work group, chaired by Ray Stubner, Deputy Chief, Juvenile Services, Department of Probation & Court Services, and Wendy Nussbaum, Executive Director, Northeast DuPage Youth & Family Services.

This program is provided by the generous support of the John D. and Catherine T. MacArthur Foundation with additional support of the DuPage County Chiefs of Police Association.

Both sessions are offered FREE of charge. For individuals attending both, lunch will be provided at no additional cost.

Please see registration form for continuing education credit hours and types offered at no additional cost.

Registration is required and seating is limited, so please register early. Registration form is attached.
