

Proof of Financial Capability

International students must demonstrate their ability to meet all estimated expenses for at least one full academic school year. If you are using personal funds to pay for your PBU education, please complete only page 2 of this document and submit your proof of income. If not, have your sponsor complete page 3 of this document and submit proof of income.

Guidelines

Sponsorship

- Financial Sponsors can be parents, relatives, friends, organizations, etc.
- You may have as many sponsors as you need
- A sponsor should only promise as much money as he/she is able to give
- By completing the affidavit, you are swearing to the U.S. government that you have means to provide a specific amount of money for the student for every year that he/she will study at Philadelphia Biblical University

Proof of Income

- All documents must include an English translation and a conversion to US Dollars
- All documents attached must be photocopies or faxes

Proof of Income can be any one of the following:

- Employer's salary statement on letterhead stationery with most recent pay stub
- If self-employed, salary estimate from accountant or attorney with most recent pay stub
- Income tax returns or receipts with most recent pay stub
- Pay stubs for last six months
- Bank/investment statements for the last six months

Dependents

- Students planning to bring a spouse and/or children must provide evidence of additional financial support of $7,525 per dependent

Notarization

- Sponsor Affidavit must be notarized, that is, signed by the sponsor in the presence of a notary public and containing an official seal
- There are notary publics at all US embassies and consulates. In other countries, notary publics may be officials licensed by the government to take sworn statements for courts of law or to witness contracts and property deeds
