Grant Purpose	The overall purpose of this grant is to provide a contract for a coordinator for The Eagle's Nest. This is our school tutoring center which focuses on at risk students in Kindergarten - second grade. The coordinator works with teachers to enroll students in the center and work on scheduling. She recruits and trains community volunteers as well as manages materials and resources in the center.
Grant Activities	Students that are identified as at-risk in reading work with a trained volunteer in our tutoring center. The children receive one-on-one instruction in a targeted area in order to boost their skills. There are a variety of games, hands-on materials, books, resources and some computers that are accessible. The data from the i-Ready diagnostic assessment will be utilized to measure outcomes.
Grant Budget Items	This grant request is for a contract for a coordinator for our tutoring center, The Eagle's Nest.
