

“Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off and Festival

May 20 & 21st, 2016 in Downtown Ayden, North Carolina
North Carolina State Barbeque Championship and KCBS Sanctioned Contest

Dear “Kings of Q” Friend,

On the behalf of the Town of Ayden, it’s citizens, and the 2016 “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off and Festival Committee, please allow me to thank you for all of the good things that you have done for Ayden, and eastern North Carolina.

The purpose of this letter is to ask for your help in sponsoring the First Annual “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off & Festival on May 20th and 21st, 2016 in Downtown Ayden. The “Kings of Q” BBQ Cook-off has been declared a North Carolina State Barbeque Championship by Governor Pat McCrory and is sanctioned by the Kansas City Barbeque Society (KCBS), the world's largest organization of barbeque and grilling enthusiasts with over 20,000 members worldwide. Competitors and KCBS judges from across the nation will come to Ayden to compete and judge in the categories of chicken, pork ribs, pork shoulder, and beef brisket, for $10,000 in cash and prizes awarded Saturday afternoon. The Festival is a family friendly event with nightly entertainment on the main stage, amusement rides and games, food vendors, commercial booths, and arts and crafts. The Cook-off and Festival will increase tourism not only for Ayden, but the surrounding communities, and will have a positive economic impact with the potential of drawing more than 8,000 visitors to the area.

The BBQ Cook-off is named in honor of the two local “Kings of Q”: Latham “Bum” Dennis and the late Pete Jones (Skylight Inn). Both families run successful BBQ restaurants (Bum’s Restaurant, the Skylight Inn) in Ayden and share family history as being descendants of Skilton Dennis. The Dennis family history stakes claim to the nation’s first commercial barbeque establishment. In 1830, Skilton Dennis is said to have started selling pit-cooked hog meat and cornbread out of a wagon in a community named Otter Town, the present town of Ayden. The Dennis clan is said to pass “that ‘gift’ with barbeque” from generation to generation.

It is our hope that you will consider a commitment to be a sponsor of this event by April 1, 2016. There are several levels of sponsorship shown on the reverse side, but our committee is ready to exceed your expectations as a sponsor by tailoring a sponsorship package that best works for your business.

Donnie Skinner is our Sponsorship Coordinator. Donnie can be reached at (252) 341-1355. We welcome your call and any questions about the event and the many sponsorship possibilities. The event cannot be a success without the support from the businesses in the area. The committee and I look forward to the opportunity to work with you and making this event a success.

On the reverse side are some sponsorship levels for your review.

Best Regards,

“Kings of Q” Committee
