Financial Statement Disclosure Information

This financial statement disclosure is for use in connection with a premarital agreement and should be completed accurately and completely. This statement should contain a full disclosure of all your assets and liabilities. You should initial each page and sign the last page. Your prospective spouse should also sign the last page acknowledging receipt.

Both persons must complete a separate financial statement and provide it to the other party. Two forms are enclosed, one for each party.

This form can be completed in Word or printed and completed by hand.

If you require additional space, please attach additional pages for the sections you need to expand.
