You and your spouse must agree to all terms of the divorce to use this packet.
All forms must be printed on bond paper.

INFORMATION ABOUT DIVORCE

1. WHO CAN USE THESE FORMS: You may use this petition for divorce only when all of the following facts are true;
 - (a) There were no children born to or adopted by the parties; wife is not now pregnant.
 - (b) You and your spouse agree on all terms of the divorce.
 - (c) You and/or your spouse are a resident of the State of Idaho.

2. THE BASICS: To use this divorce package, there are basic two requirements that must be met. Those requirements are:
 - (a) You must satisfy the residency requirements.
 - (b) You must be seeking a divorce based upon the ground of irreconcilable differences.

3. RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: Idaho law requires that in an action for divorce, the plaintiff must have been a resident of the state for six (6) full weeks next preceding the commencement of the action.

4. GROUND FOR DIVORCE: Under Idaho law, a divorce may be granted based upon the following grounds:
 - (a) Adultery
 - (b) Extreme cruelty
 - (c) Willful desertion
 - (d) Willful neglect
 - (e) Habitual intemperance
 - (f) Conviction of felony
 - (g) When either the husband or wife has become permanently insane
 - (h) Irreconcilable differences.

Irreconcilable differences are those grounds which are determined by the court to be substantial reasons for not continuing the marriage and which make it appear that the marriage should be dissolved. Only parties seeking a divorce based upon irreconcilable differences may use this package.

5. WAITING PERIOD: No hearing on the merits upon grounds for divorce shall be held in any action for divorce, and no final decree shall be entered, until at least twenty (20) days after the commencement of the action and service of process.

6. ALIMONY/SUPPORT: Since this is an agreed divorce, you and your spouse will decide issues of alimony. The forms included with this package assume that no alimony will be paid and is waived, but you may add provisions for alimony if you desire. In a contested case, the court may order maintenance payments to a spouse if it finds that the spouse seeking maintenance:
 - (a) Lacks sufficient property to provide for his or her reasonable needs; and
 - (b) Is unable to support himself or herself through employment.

The maintenance order shall be in such amounts and for such periods of time that the court deems just, after considering all relevant factors which may include:

- (a) The financial resources of the spouse seeking maintenance, including the marital property apportioned to said spouse, and said spouse's ability to meet his or her needs independently;
 - (b) The time necessary to acquire sufficient education and training to enable the spouse seeking maintenance to find employment;
 - (c) The duration of the marriage;
 - (d) The age and the physical and emotional condition of the spouse seeking maintenance;
 - (e) The ability of the spouse from whom maintenance is sought to meet his or her needs while meeting those of the spouse seeking maintenance;
 - (f) The tax consequences to each spouse;
 - (g) The fault of either party.
7. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY: Since this is an agreed upon divorce, the parties will agreed to property distributions. Idaho is a community property state. In a contested case, this means that the court will divide the marital property between the parties in such proportions as the court, from all the facts of the case and the condition of the parties, deems just, with due consideration of the following factors:
 - (a) Unless there are compelling reasons otherwise, there shall be a substantially equal division in value, considering debts, between the spouses.
 - (b) Factors which may bear upon whether a division shall be equal, or the manner of division, include, but are not limited to:
 - (1) Duration of the marriage;

- (2) Any antenuptial agreement of the parties; provided, however, that the court shall have no authority to amend or rescind any such agreement;
- (3) The age, health, occupation, amount and source of income, vocational skills, employability, and liabilities of each spouse;
- (4) The needs of each spouse;
- (5) Whether the apportionment is in lieu of or in addition to maintenance;
- (6) The present and potential earning capability of each party; and
- (7) Retirement benefits, including, but not limited to, social security, civil service, military and railroad retirement benefits.

8. NAME CHANGE: All applications for change of names must be made to the district court of the county where the person whose name is proposed to be changed resides, by petition, signed by such person. The petition must specify the place of birth and residence of such person, his or her present name, the name proposed, and reason for such change of name.
9. MEDIATION: During the mandatory waiting period of twenty days before granting a divorce, the court may, upon request of either party, require a conference of the parties to make a determination as to whether a reconciliation of the parties is practicable.

7. Decree of Divorce (CA0-8-3) – This document grants the divorce and any other relief requested.

INSTRUCTIONS AND STEPS

Note: If a form contains a space for the signature of a Notary Public, it must be signed by you (and if necessary by your spouse) in front of a Notary Public, who must notarize the document. Prepare an original and several copies of each of your completed documents. Your spouse should have a copy of everything you file, stamped “filed” by the clerk. You should keep copies and the court must have originals.

STEP 1: The filing party (Plaintiff) should complete the Complaint for Divorce (CAO-1-3) and Summons (CAO-1-1). Once completed, these documents should be presented to the Clerk of Court for filing. A filing fee must be paid at this time.

STEP 2: The Complaint (CAO-1-3) and Summons (CAO-1-1) must then be served upon the Defendant. The Defendant should also be provided a copy of the Acknowledgment of Service by Defendant and Consent (CAO-2-1A). The Defendant should complete and return the Acknowledgment of Service by Defendant and Consent (CAO-2-1A) to you for filing with the Clerk of Court in the county of filing.

STEP 3: The parties should jointly complete the Sworn Stipulation for Entry of Decree of Divorce (CAO-6-8). The Decree of Divorce (CAO-8-3) should also be completed at this time. Once completed, these documents should then be filed with the Clerk of Court. When presenting these documents to the Clerk of Court, also include two envelopes, one addressed to you and the other addressed to your spouse.

STEP 4: Once the Decree of Divorce (CAO-8-3) is signed by the Judge, the Clerk of Court will mail the signed Decree to you and your spouse in the envelopes provided.

Notes: When presenting Pleadings to the Clerk make sure you have at least 4 copies for the Clerk. The Clerk will return the copies to you that the Court does not need. If a Certificate of Mailing is on any form, a copy of the form should be mailed to the person indicated.

NOTE ABOUT COMPLETING THE FORMS

The forms in this packet contain “form fields” created using Microsoft Word. “Form fields” facilitate completion of the forms using your computer. They do not limit your ability to print the form “in blank” and complete with a typewriter or by hand.

If you do not see the gray shaded form fields, go to the View menu, click on Toolbars, and then select Forms. This will open the forms toolbar. Look for the button on the forms toolbar that resembles a shaded letter “a”. Click in this button and the form fields will be visible.

The forms are locked which means that the content of the forms cannot be changed. You can only fill in the information in the fields.

If you need to make any changes in the body of the form, it is necessary for you “unlock” or “unprotect” the form. IF YOU INTEND TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE CONTENT, DO SO BEFORE YOU BEGIN TO FILL IN THE FIELDS. IF YOU UNLOCK THE DOCUMENT AFTER YOU HAVE BEGUN TO COMPLETE THE FIELDS, WHEN YOU RELOCK, ALL INFORMATION YOU ENTERED WILL BE LOST. To unlock, click on “Tools” in the Menu bar and then select “unprotect document”. You may then be prompted to enter a password. If so, the password is “uslf”. That is uslf in lower case letters without the quotation marks. After you make the changes relock the document before you begin to complete the fields.

After any required changes and re-protecting the document, click on the first form field and enter the required information. You will be able to navigate through the document from form field to form field using your tab key. Tab to a form field and insert your data. If you experience problems, please let us know.
