INFORMATION ABOUT DIVORCE

1. WHO CAN USE THESE FORMS: You may use this petition form for divorce only when all of the following facts are true;
 - (a) There were no children born to or adopted by you and your spouse.
 - (b) You and your spouse agree on all terms of the divorce.
 - (c) You and/or your spouse are a resident of the State of Louisiana.

2. THE BASICS: In a typical divorce, there are basic two requirements that must be met before you can file for a divorce. Those requirements are below:
 - (a) You must satisfy the residency requirements.
 - (b) You must satisfy the no-fault procedures, in that you and your spouse must have lived separate and apart for one hundred-eighty days prior to the filing of the divorce action based upon La. CC Art. 103, or you and your spouse must live separate and apart for one hundred eighty days after the filing of the divorce action based upon La. CC Art. 102.

3. RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: Louisiana law requires that in an action for divorce that at the time of filing, one or both of the spouses must be domiciled in the state. In an action for divorce, if a spouse has established and maintained a residence in a parish of this state for a period of six months, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that he has a domicile in this state in the parish of such residence.

4. GROUND FOR DIVORCE: Under Louisiana law, a divorce shall be granted:
 - A. Upon motion of a spouse when either spouse has filed a petition for divorce and upon proof that one hundred eighty days have elapsed from the service of the petition, or from the execution of written waiver of the service, and that the spouses have lived separate and apart continuously for at least one hundred eighty days prior to the filing of the rule to show cause (The motion shall be a rule to show cause filed after all such delays have elapsed), or; La. CC Art. 102
 - B. On the petition of a spouse upon proof that:
 - i. The spouses have been living separate and apart continuously for a period of six months or more on the date the petition is filed;
 - ii. The other spouse has committed adultery; or
 - iii. The other spouse has committed a felony and has been sentenced to death or imprisonment at hard labor. La. CC Art. 103

5. WAITING PERIOD: Under the provisions of this divorce package, the parties must have remained separated for a period of one hundred-eighty days from the filing of the petition before the court will grant a judgment of dissolution of marriage in a 102 divorce action, or remained separated one hundred-eighty days immediately prior to the filing of the petition. In addition, the law requires that two days (exclusive of holidays) elapse from the entry of the judgment of default before a default judgment may be confirmed.
6. ALIMONY/SUPPORT: Since this is an agreed divorce you will decide issues of alimony. The forms assume that no alimony will be paid and is waived but you may add provisions for alimony if you desire. In a contested case, the court may award interim periodic support to a party or may award final periodic support to a party free from fault prior to the filing of a proceeding to terminate the marriage, based on the needs of that party and the ability of the other party to pay, in accordance with the following factors:
- a. The needs of the parties.
 - b. The income and means of the parties, including the liquidity of such means.
 - c. The financial obligations of the parties.
 - d. The earning capacity of the parties.
 - e. The effect of custody of children upon a party's earning capacity.
 - f. The time necessary for the claimant to acquire appropriate education, training, or employment.
 - g. The health and age of the parties.
 - h. The duration of the marriage.
 - i. The tax consequences to either or both parties.
7. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY: Since this is an agreed divorce the parties will agreed to property distributions. Louisiana is a community property state. In a contested case, this means that the court will divide the marital property between the parties as it deems equitable and just, after setting aside to each spouse the separate property of each.
8. NAME CHANGE: A spouse may petition the court requesting that upon divorce the court restore the party to the use of a former or maiden name.
9. LEGAL SEPARATION: The grounds for legal separation (separation from bed and board) are the same as those for a covenant marriage with the addition of habitual drunkenness. They are: (1) that the spouses have been living separate and apart for a period of 2 years or more on the date of filing the petition; (2) that the other spouse has committed adultery; (3) that the other spouse has committed a felony and has been sentenced to death or imprisonment with hard labor; (4) physical or sexual abuse of a spouse or child; (5) abandonment for 1 year or more; and (6) living separate and apart for 1 year or more after a legal separation. A spouse may petition the court for spousal and/or child support and restitution of separate property during a marriage. This is intended to provide support or maintenance for those spouses who desire to live apart, but who are not filing for divorce. Art. 9

NOTE ABOUT COMPLETING THE FORMS

The forms in this packet contain “form fields” created using Microsoft Word. “Form fields” facilitate completion of the forms using your computer. They do not limit your ability to print the form “in blank” and complete with a typewriter or by hand.

If you do not see the gray shaded form fields, go to the View menu, click on Toolbars, and then select Forms. This will open the forms toolbar. Look for the button on the forms toolbar that resembles a shaded letter “a”. Click in this button and the form fields will be visible.

The forms are locked which means that the content of the forms cannot be changed. You can only fill in the information in the fields.

If you need to make any changes in the body of the form, it is necessary for you “unlock” or “unprotect” the form. IF YOU INTEND TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE CONTENT, DO SO BEFORE YOU BEGIN TO FILL IN THE FIELDS. IF YOU UNLOCK THE DOCUMENT AFTER YOU HAVE BEGUN TO COMPLETE THE FIELDS, WHEN YOU RELOCK, ALL INFORMATION YOU ENTERED WILL BE LOST. To unlock click on “Tools” in the Menu bar and then selecting “unprotect document”. You may then be prompted to enter a password. If so, the password is “uslf”. That is uslf in lower case letters without the quotation marks. After you make the changes relock the document before you begin to complete the fields.

After any required changes and re-protecting the document, click on the first form field and enter the required information. You will be able to navigate through the document from form field to form field using your tab key. Tab to a form field and insert your data. If you experience problems, please let us know.
