INFORMATION ABOUT DIVORCE

1. WHO CAN USE THESE FORMS: You may use this divorce package only when all of the following facts are true;
 - (a) You and your spouse have remained separated without cohabitation for a period of at least one year immediately prior to filing for divorce;
 - (b) There were no children born to or adopted by you and your spouse.
 - (c) You and your spouse agree on all terms of the divorce.
 - (d) You or your spouse has lived in North Carolina and in the county of filing for six months before filing the divorce.

2. THE BASICS: In a typical divorce, there are basic two requirements that must be met before you can file for a divorce. Those requirements are below:
 - (a) You must satisfy the residency requirements. You or your spouse must have resided in North Carolina for at least six months immediately preceding the filing of the Complaint.
 - (b) You must satisfy the no-fault procedures, in that you and your spouse are seeking a divorce based upon the grounds of living separate and apart for a period of at least one year.

3. RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: At least one of the parties to the action for divorce must have resided in the State of North Carolina for at least six months immediately prior to the institution of the action for divorce.

4. WHERE TO FILE: An action for divorce may be filed in the county where either party resides.

5. GROUND FOR DIVORCE: A divorce may be granted in North Carolina based upon the incurable insanity or mental illness of one of the spouses, or upon the parties living separate and apart for a period of at least one year without cohabitation. This package is designed for parties seeking a divorce based upon the grounds of living separate and apart for a period of at least one year.

6. SIMPLIFIED DIVORCE PROCEDURE: This package contemplates a divorce based upon the simplified divorce procedure permitted by the State of North Carolina. Under this procedure, if the parties are seeking a divorce based upon the grounds of living separate and apart without cohabitation for a period of at least one year, and the parties have agreed to all terms of the divorce, leaving no issues to be decided by the court, the court may grant the divorce based upon evidence presented by affidavit, verified motion or other verified pleading.

7. LEGAL SEPARATION: The court may grant a judgement of separation from bed and board (legal separation) on the following grounds:

- a. Abandonment of spouse or family;
- b. Maliciously turning the other spouse out of doors;
- c. Cruel or barbarous treatment endangering the life of the other;
- d. Personal indignities rendering condition of other spouse intolerable and life burdensome;
- e. Excessive abuse of alcohol or drugs;
- f. Adultery.

This package does not contain forms for a legal separation.

8. WAITING PERIOD: Utilizing the simplified divorce procedure contemplated by this package, thirty (30) days must elapse from the commencement of the action instituting the divorce proceeding before the court will grant a judgment of dissolution of marriage.

9. ALIMONY/SUPPORT: Since this is an agreed upon divorce, you and your spouse will decide issues of alimony. The forms assume that no alimony will be paid and is waived but you may add provisions for alimony if you desire. In a contested case, either party may be awarded alimony upon a finding that the party seeking alimony is dependant upon the other party for support and such an award would be equitable. Fault of the parties as it pertains to adultery during the marriage is considered when awarding alimony. Other factors the court will consider in determining the amount and duration of an award of alimony include:

- a. Marital misconduct;
- b. Relative earnings and earning capacities of the parties;
- c. The ages, physical, mental and emotional health of the parties;
- d. The amount and sources of income of both spouses;
- e. The duration of the marriage;
- f. The contribution of one spouse to the education, training or increased earning power of the other spouse;
- g. The extent that serving as a child's custodian will affect a party's earning power, etc.;
- h. The standard of living established during the marriage;

- i. The relative education of the parties and the time necessary for a party to acquire sufficient education or training to meet his or her reasonable needs;
- j. The relative assets and liabilities of the parties;
- k. Any other relevant factor.

10. DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY: Since this is an agreed upon divorce, the parties will agreed to property distributions. North Carolina is an equitable distribution state. In a contested case, this means that the court will divide the marital property between the parties as it deems equitable and just, after setting aside to each spouse the separate property of each. Factors the court considers in dividing the property between the parties include:

- a. The income, property, and liabilities of the parties;
- b. Any obligation for support from a previous marriage;
- c. The duration of the marriage and the age, physical and mental health of the parties;
- d. The needs of the custodial parent;
- e. The expectation of pension, retirement or other deferred compensation rights that are not marital property;
- f. The contribution to the education or earning potential of the other spouse;
- g. Any other factor the court deems just and proper.

11. NAME CHANGE: A spouse may Complaint the court requesting that upon divorce the court restore the party to the use of a former or maiden name.

NOTE ABOUT COMPLETING THE FORMS

The forms in this packet contain “form fields” created using Microsoft Word. “Form fields” facilitate completion of the forms using your computer. They do not limit your ability to print the form “in blank” and complete with a typewriter or by hand.

If you do not see the gray shaded form fields, go to the View menu, click on Toolbars, and then select Forms. This will open the forms toolbar. Look for the button on the forms toolbar that resembles a shaded letter “a”. Click in this button and the form fields will be visible.

To complete the forms click on the gray shaded areas and type the information. For the separation agreement complete the gray shaded areas and also make any other changes or additions to resolve all issues.

Some forms are locked which means that the content of the forms cannot be changed unless the form is unlocked. You can only fill in the information in the fields. If you need to make any changes in the body of the form, it is necessary for you “unlock” or “unprotect” the form. IF YOU INTEND TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE CONTENT, DO SO BEFORE YOU BEGIN TO FILL IN THE FIELDS. IF YOU UNLOCK THE DOCUMENT AFTER YOU HAVE BEGUN TO COMPLETE THE FIELDS, WHEN YOU RELOCK, ALL INFORMATION YOU ENTERED WILL BE LOST. To unlock click on “Tools” in the Menu bar and then selecting “unprotect document”. You may then be prompted to enter a password. If so, the password is “uslf”. That is uslf in lower case letters without the quotation marks. After you make the changes relock the document before you begin to complete the fields. After any required changes relock the form, then click on the first form field and enter the required information. You will be able to navigate through the document from form field to form field using your tab key. Tab to a form field and insert your data. If you experience problems, please let us know.
