

JOHN LAWYER, ESQ.
12 MAIN STREET
ANYWHERE, USA
Attorneys for Defendants
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY
(Insert Vicinage)

---

JANE DOE,

Case Number:

Plaintiffs,

v.

ANSWER

JOHN DOE,

Defendants.

---

INTRODUCTION

By way of answer to the verified complaint filed by the plaintiffs which seeks preliminary and permanent injunctive relief as well as compensatory and punitive damages, the defendants [insert] hereby respond and allege as follows.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

The answering defendants herein do not object to the plaintiffs' allegations regarding jurisdiction and venue however, despite not objecting herein they hereby reserve their rights to move for dismissal on the basis of abstention and subject matter jurisdiction.

THE PARTIES

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

Admitted.

Admitted.

Admitted.

Admitted.

Admitted.

Admitted.

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

The answering defendants lack information and belief as to the veracity of these representations and therefore leave the plaintiffs to their proofs.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the answering defendants herein respectfully request that the plaintiffs= complaint be hereby dismissed with prejudice and also awarding the defendants= counsel fees and costs along with any other relief which this Court deems just.

JOHN LAWYER, ESQ.

By: