Re: Sale of _____ (Describe Product) to _____ (Name of Purchaser) on _____ (Date)

Dear Mr. /Ms. _____ (last name):

Please take notice that on _____ (date of sale), the implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose was breach by you in the sale by you to me of _____ (describe product).
As you will recall, I specifically described to you the purpose for which the _____ _____ (describe product) was going to be used. I told you that I was relying on your expertise in selling me the product that would fit the purpose for which I was going to use the product. The _____ _____ (describe product and defect).

Section _____ (i.e., your state's version of § 2-315 of the UCC) provides in part that where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose.

Please come to _____ (Street Address, City, State, Zip Code) within the next ten (t0) days, pick up your product, and refund to me the sum of (e.g., purchase price) _____.

Sincerely,
