Assignment of Member Interest in

---

A Limited Liability Company

FOR VALUABLE CONSIDERATION, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the undersigned, _____, "Assignor", Member of _____, a Washington Limited Liability Company, hereinafter "Company", does hereby assign, transfer and warrant to _____, "Assignee", all of Members ownership interest in the Company.

Except as otherwise provided in the operating agreement, a membership interest in a limited liability company is assignable in whole or in part. The operating agreement of the Company does not prohibit assignment of a Members interest. An assignment of this interest does not dissolve the company or entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights of a member. An assignment entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, the distributions of cash and other property and the allocations of profits, losses, income, gains, deductions, credits, or similar items to which the assignee's assignor would have been entitled. The Assignor ceases to be a member upon assignment of all the assignor's membership interest. Except as provided herein, until Assignee becomes a member, the assignee does not have liability as a member solely because of the assignment.

Assignee may become a member if and to the extent that the assignor gives the assignee that right and either of the following occurs:

(1) The assignor has been given the authority in writing in the operating agreement to give an assignee the right to become a member.

(2) All other members consent.

By execution hereof, Assignor, gives to Assignee the right to become a Member of the Company.

Once Assignee becomes a member, he has to the extent assigned the rights and powers of a member under the operating agreement is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of a member under the operating agreement. Assignee is liable for the obligations of Assignor to make contributions as provided by law. Assignee is not obligated for liabilities that could not be ascertained from a written operating agreement and that were unknown to Assignee at the time he becomes a member.

Assignor is not released from his liability to a limited liability company for past capital contributions required by law whether or not the assignee becomes a member.

Demand for Indemnity from

A Limited Liability Company by Member

The undersigned, _____, Member/Manager of _____, a Washington Limited Liability Company, hereinafter "Company", does hereby demand from the Company the following:

Indemnity for the following in connection with claim against Member/Manager as follows:

Nature of Claim: _____

_____
_____
_____

Resolution of Claim: _____

_____

Expenses, Fees and costs for which reimbursement is sought:

Attorney Fees _____

Filing Fees _____

Other: _____

This demand is made in accordance with the provision of the operating agreement which provides in substance that:

The Company may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or who is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action, suit, or proceeding, other than an action by or in the right of the company, because he is or was a manager, member, partner, officer, employee, or agent of the company or is or was serving at the request of the company as a manager, director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. The company may indemnify or agree to indemnify a person in that position against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement that actually and reasonably were incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company and, in connection with any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not create of itself a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company and, in connection with any criminal action or proceeding, a presumption that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The Company may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party or who is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the company to procure a judgment in its favor, because he is or was a manager, officer, employee, or agent of the company or is or was serving at the request of the company as a manager, member, partner, director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise. The company may indemnify or agree to indemnify a person in that position against expenses, including attorney's fees, that were actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of the action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the company, except that an indemnification shall not be made in respect of any claim, issue, or matter as to which the person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the company unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas or the court in which the action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for expenses that the court considers proper.
