The Program: Washington area new auto dealer principals, key managers, and business associates will not want to miss WANADA's 2007 Annual Meeting and Luncheon, with keynote speakers James Carville and Mary Matalin, Washington's foremost political odd couple and savvy political consultants, authors and media pundits. Representing opposite ends of the political spectrum – he a former campaign consultant for President Clinton, she a former assistant to President Bush and counselor to Vice-President Cheney – Carville and Matalin can be counted on to offer a balanced and highly entertaining analysis of the presidential campaigns already going full bore with the election still a year away. Please join us for lunch with the WANADA leadership for what is certain to be one of WANADA's most entertaining and informative Annual Luncheons ever!

The Speakers: James Carville's long list of electoral successes began in 1986 when he managed the gubernatorial victory of Robert Casey in Pennsylvania, who had lost in three previous attempts. But the "Ragin' Cajun" is best known for helping guide Bill Clinton to the presidency in 1992 – for which he was honored as Campaign Manager of the Year in 1993 by the American Association of Political Consultants. Before joining the Bush/Cheney White House, Mary Matalin hosted CNN's critically acclaimed debate show, Crossfire. Known for her sharp wit and free-spirited political repartee, Matalin is also the former founding co-host of the Washington-based political weeknight talk show Equal Time and the The Mary Matalin Show on the CBS Talk Radio Network. Matalin has made frequent television appearances as a political commentator, and has written for various periodicals including Newsweek and The Los Angeles Times. Matalin also co-authored the best-selling political campaign book All's Fair: Love, War and Running for President with her husband, James Carville. This dynamic duo also starred together on HBO's critically acclaimed series K-Street, about the world of powerful political consultants.
