

Enter our exciting competition and your painting could be included in our specially created Walker Morris Calendar.

If you are aged between 5 and 11 and enjoy painting, you could win some super prizes for both yourself and your school. The 13 winners of the competition, judged by internationally renowned artist Ashley Jackson, will each receive a treasure chest full of artists' materials, along with a cheque for £250 for their schools. There will also be prizes for the runner up artists.

Simply choose your favourite month of year, create a painting of that month and send it to us. Why not enter the competition as a class project?

All proceeds from the sale of the calendar will go to Martin House Hospice.
