

Student Performance Evaluation - Form SPE-MM1988

Student Name and Consent Signature: _____

Instructor's Name: _____

BACKGROUND: The above-named student is participating in a Mentoring Program designed to aid him/her in achieving Wholeness in four (4) distinct lanes of their lives: These lanes of Wholeness include Health, School/Work, Finances and Relationships. Each lane carries its own Core Areas of Evaluation. The lane of which you will be rating the above-named student is in the lane of School. These Core Areas of Evaluation are essential to transforming an individual from an effective Follower into an effective Leader. As the student's instructor, your response to their performance in these Core Areas of Evaluation provides the feedback necessary for them to identify opportunities to develop into effective leaders through the strength of being effective followers. Thank you in advance for your participation and support in helping the above-named student in their efforts to maximize Wholeness in their lane as a student. Upon completion, please fax back to 1-888-614-9507. Thank you.

INSTRUCTIONS: Each Core Area of Evaluation is to be rated against the factors of the 7-point rating scale. Each factor of the rating scale is highlighted below:

SA - Strongly Agree; A - Agree; SWA - Somewhat Agree; SS - So-So; SWD - Somewhat Disagree; D - Disagree; SD - Strongly Disagree

You will place an (X) in the space underneath the factor that best describes your view of the individual's performance against the respective Core Area of Evaluation.

Core Areas of Evaluation	SD	D	SWD	SS	SWA	A	SA
This person is most often a true model of how to handle an instructor's expectations that are beyond one's individual control.
This person's attitude most often makes it easy to give them constructive feedback.
For matters of high importance, if this person says it, I can trust it and take it to the bank.
For matters of high importance, the positive contributions of this person are of such significance, that their absence is clearly felt.
For matters of high importance, assistance provided by this person, is welcomed, and it strengthens all who come in contact with them

