Question 23 address mental health and chemical or psychological dependency matters. The Committee asks this question because of its responsibility to protect the public by determining the current fitness of an applicant to be authorized house counsel, and the purpose of this question is to determine an applicant's current fitness to be authorized house counsel. This information, along with all other information, is treated confidentially by the Committee and the Administrative Office. Each applicant is considered on an individual basis. The mere fact of treatment for mental health problems or chemical or psychological dependency is not, in and of itself, a basis on which an applicant is ordinarily denied such authorization. As with applications for admission to the bar, the Connecticut Bar Examining Committee anticipates that it will regularly recommend authorization of individuals who have demonstrated personal responsibility and maturity in dealing with mental health and chemical or psychological dependency issues. The Committee encourages applicants who may benefit from treatment to seek it, and the Committee views such treatment as a positive factor in evaluating an application. As indicated in the Rules, all proceedings conducted pursuant to the Rules and Regulations are confidential.

On occasion, authorization may be denied when an applicant's ability to function is impaired in a manner that indicates that the applicant is currently unfit to provide legal services at the time the decision is made, or when the applicant demonstrates a lack of candor and/or credibility by his or her response. Furthermore, each applicant is responsible for demonstrating that he or she possesses the qualifications necessary to provide legal services to an organization as authorized house counsel. Your response may include information as to why, in your opinion or that of your treatment provider, your condition will not affect your ability to provide such services in a competent and professional manner.

The Connecticut Bar Examining Committee does not, by its question, seek information that is characterized as situational counseling, such as stress counseling, domestic counseling, and grief counseling. Generally, the Committee does not view these types of counseling as germane to the issue of whether an applicant is qualified to provide legal services as authorized house counsel.

If you answer "YES" to Question 23, complete Forms AHC23A & AHC23B. Make as many copies of the forms as you need to describe the events.

- Yes    No    23.    Do you currently have any condition or impairment (including, but not limited to, substance abuse, alcohol abuse, or a mental, emotional, or nervous disorder or condition) that in a material way affects your ability to provide legal services to an organization in a competent, ethical, and professional manner? "Currently" means recently enough that the condition or impairment could reasonably affect your ability to function as an authorized house counsel. If your answer is yes, complete Form AHC23A and AHC23B.
