

THE FRIENDS OF TREDYFFRIN PUBLIC LIBRARY NEEDS VOLUNTEERS!

Since 1968, we've been loyal Friends to the library. Hundreds of Friends through the years have worked to help the library in many ways. We're really good at raising funds which the library uses to develop programs and purchase materials. Plus, we promote the library in our community, and when necessary, we make calls, send emails and write letters to lawmakers to advocate for the library,

Right now, we're very short handed. Most of our wonderful volunteers work on our major project, the Red Fox Book Shop, which raised $32,000 in 2013. Other important areas and committees need help.

Here's how you can get involved and help the Friends help the Library: JOIN ONE OF THESE GROUPS:

Membership Committee: we need strong administrative skills, knowledge of Excel and Word, help with mailings, newsletters for members;

Volunteers Coordinator: schedule volunteers for work assignments and help with training;

Fundraising Committee: take part in 2 or 3 fundraising or friend raising events each year;

Public Relations Committee: take part in a variety of projects to draw attention to the work of the Friends;

Advocacy Committee: make calls, send emails and write letters to lawmakers and other officials about the concerns of the library;

History Project Committee: help research and write a history of the Friends to publish by 2016 for the library's 50th Anniversary.

TO JOIN US AS A VOLUNTEER FILL OUT THE FORM BELOW.

Please, share this request with your family, friends, neighbors, co-workers, book club and other various constituencies.

“Research has shown that people who volunteer often live longer.”
