Use the chart below to keep track of the characters in the book you are reading.

- Each time you come across a new character, write down the character's name and the page number on which the character appears.
- Write a brief description of the character. (For example, "Tom's best friend.")
- If you wish, you can add more information about the characters as you read. Put a star (*) next to the name(s) of the main character(s).

| Name of Character | Page | Description |
