$\qquad$

| Name: | Book Title: |  |
| :--- | :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Date:  Pages read  Time Start/finish: | Date:  Pages read  Time Start/finish: | Date:  Pages read  Time Start/finish: |
| Minutes: | Minutes: | Minutes: |

|  | Total Minutes: |
| :--- | :--- |
| Date: | Date: |
| Pages read | Pages read |
| Time Start/finish: | Time Start/finish: |
|  |  |
| Minutes: | Minutes: |
|  |  |

Choose one question, underline or highlight it, and answer it in at least 10 sentences. You must cite textual evidence.

1. Discuss and describe a character in detail; Are they described directly or indirectly, round/flat and static/dynamic?
2. Is there an important theme or central idea about life that the author is trying to get across?
3. What figurative language did you find and how does the author use it in an interesting way? When does the author use literal language and when do they use figurative language? Why?
4. What part of the plot are you reading at this point - exposition, rising action, climax, falling action or resolution? How is the plot developed by key events experienced by the characters?
5. What is the setting and how does it impact the story?
6. What conflict is taking place - internal or external? Explain the conflict and how it fits into the context of the story.
7. What is the author's attitude and how does he/she use words to create a tone?
8. What is the overall feeling or mood for you as a reader?
9. NON-FICTION-Write a 10 sentence summary which includes a significant quote and explains why it is important.
